If approved, the said governing body or board of supervisors shall indorse, or cause to be indorsed, on said map, or plat its approval of the same. Assembly Bill No. 1334 read first time, and referred to Committee on Roads and Highways.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following messages from the Governor were received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 25, 1923.

To the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 181 is returned herewith without my approval.

This bill provides that any person convicted of a felony who is paroled for ten years shall be deemed to have served his term and be discharged from prison. Not only will this limit the pardoning power of the Governor and curtail the functions of the Board of Prison Directors, but it will reduce the term of life imprisonment to ten years. I regard such a change in our penal laws to be highly undesirable, and not in the interest of the administration of public justice. The Attorney General, whose opinion I solicited, advises me that if the bill is enacted into law it would prevent punishment for crimes discovered after the ten-year period.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

VETO OF GOVERNOR SUSTAINED.

The question being, "Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor were sustained by the following vote:

AYES—None.

NOES—Senators Allen, Breed, Burnett, Chamberlin, Creighton, Eden, Gates, Dr., Gray, Handy, Harris, Hart, Hughes, Hurley, Ingram, Juman, Johnson, M. B., Jones, Lewis, McDonald, Murphy, Nelson, Osborne, Powers, Rominger, Sample, Sharkey, Slater, Swing, and West—29.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 25, 1923.

To the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 308 is a duplication of Senate Bill No. 385, passed by both houses and signed by me on February 2, 1923. At the request of the author I am returning it herewith to your honorable body without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

VETO OF THE GOVERNOR SUSTAINED.

The question being, "Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor were sustained by the following vote:

AYES—None.

NOES—Senators Allen, Arbuckle, Boggs, Breed, Burnett, Chamberlin, Creighton, Eden, Gates, Dr., Gray, Handy, Harris, Hart, Hughes, Hurley, Ingram, Johnson, M. B., Jones, Lewis, McDonald, Murphy, Nelson, Osborne, Powers, Rominger, Rush, Sample, Sharkey, Slater, Swing, and West—31.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 25, 1923.

To the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 164 is returned herewith without my approval.

One effect of this amendment to section 1386 of the Civil Code will be to deprive a second wife of her right under the laws of succession to share in her husband's estate, unless there be issue of such second marriage. There is much doubt whether this rule would be just or proper in any case. I am not aware of any public demand for the change, and in default of such a demand I do not think it should be made.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

In the absence of Senator Dennett, Senate Bill No. 164 ordered on unfinished business file.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 25, 1923.

To the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 190 is returned herewith without my approval.

This bill amends sections 1578 and 1579 and is designed to eliminate the necessity of setting forth in a petition for an order of sale or lease of realty in guardianship proceedings, some of the particular facts and reasons upon which an order of the court is demanded. New grounds are also provided upon which a petition may be granted, and the clerk instead of the judge is permitted to fix the time for hearing. In addition to the usual service of notice, the amendment authorizes service by publication on the nearest relatives of the ward. I am advised that this bill was passed by the Legislature in 1921 and that the then Governor refused to sign it. I have been furnished with no good reason why I should disagree with my predecessor. There seems no demand for a change in the law in the respects indicated.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

In the absence of Senator Dennett, Senate Bill No. 190 ordered on unfinished business file.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 25, 1923.

To the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 264 is returned herewith without my approval.

This bill amends sections 378, 430, 379(a), 379(b), 379(c), and 391 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to joinder of parties to civil actions. In my opinion the proposed changes are unnecessary and will in no manner assist in the administration of justice. The amendment to section 430, by eliminating the ground of demurrer by which a defect or misjoinder of parties may now be detected, makes it possible to improperly join the party in two cases and render judgment against him twice. If defects of parties defendant are to be disregarded it may be possible to obtain a judgment against a person when there is no cause of action against him.

The amendment to section 379(a) is ambiguous and can serve no other purpose than to multiply disputes and appeals over matters which do not affect the substantial rights of the litigants.

The amendment to section 379(b) permits the court by order to relieve a defendant who may have been improperly brought into the action. This suggests the question, Why should a defendant who has no interest be brought into the action at all?

These amendments can have no other purpose than to pave the way for an elaborate system of court rules. To this many members of the bar are opposed, and it should not be encouraged until there has been more discussion than has yet been had.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

To the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 265 is returned herewith without my approval.

This bill is a companion of Senate Bill No. 264 and is open to the same objections as that bill. Under the guise of simplifying the procedure it muddles it up and renders court rules necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

In the absence of Senator Dennett, Senate Bill No. 265 ordered on unfinished business file.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 25, 1923.

To the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 266 is returned herewith without my approval.

This bill amends section 438 of the Code of Civil Procedure so as to permit a counterclaim to be set up in an action to foreclose a mortgage, and if enacted might produce the curious result of abating an action of foreclosure until the determination of the action based on the counterclaim, which in the discretion of the court may be tried separately. I can see no possible occasion for making this change, unless it be to muddle the prevailing procedure.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

In the absence of Senator Dennett, Senate Bill No. 266 ordered on unfinished business file.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, April 25, 1923.

To the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 270 is herewith returned without my approval.

This bill amends section 1048 of the Code of Civil Procedure so as to permit the court, by order, to sever causes of action whenever that can be done without prejudice to a substantial right. It is evidently a device to relieve attorneys from the labor of carefully preparing pleadings which will state the cause of action they desire considered by the court, and is calculated to muddle up the present practice. I think the change is unnecessary and I am advised not generally desired by the bar.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

In the absence of Senator Dennett, Senate Bill No. 270 ordered on unfinished business file.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, April 25, 1923.

To the Members of the Senate of the State of California.

GENTLEMEN: I return herewith Senate Bill No. 272 without my approval endorsed thereon.

I am advised by the Attorney General that the provisions of section 11 of the bill relative to the filing of secondary petitions by three or more of the proposed constituent units or districts, and the creation of a water conservation district by the State Irrigation Board upon the receipt of such secondary petitions, are of very doubtful validity, for the reason that adequate provision is not made for notice and hearing on the proposed action in such manner that the land owner may be heard and his objections considered before his land is subjected to the lien of a bond issue or an assessment to defray the cost of the proposed works.

For the reason stated I am withholding my approval from this bill. Time yet remains within which a new bill free of this objectionable feature may be introduced and passed.

It is, furthermore, suggested that Senate Bill No. 91, dealing with the same general subject may be made the means of evolving a plan acceptable to the various interests concerned in the formation of the proposed water conservation district.

Yours sincerely,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

On request of Senator Harris, Senate Bill No. 272 ordered on unfinished business file.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following messages from the Governor were received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 26, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California.

I am returning herewith Senate Bill No. 443 without my approval.

The law now provides that counties shall receive from the State $30 per pupil per average daily attendance. This bill attempts to cut down the payment to counties if the counties do not raise a similar amount. While on its face this bill looks like an attempt to reduce county allowances, it is really a cunningly devised plan to force the counties to spend $30 a pupil (in addition to the State's $30) regardless of whether it is needed or not. This bill is sponsored by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and is in line with his policy of piling the tax load upon the people and preventing county and local school authorities from economizing. This bill is also of doubtful constitutionality.

Respectfully submitted.

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

VETO OF THE GOVERNOR SUSTAINED.

The question being, "Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor were sustained by the following vote:

AYES—None.

NOES—Senators Allen, Boggs, Breed, Burnett, Canepa, Creighton, Crowley, Eden, Gates, Dr., Handy, Hart, Hughes, Hurley, Ingram, Inman, Johnson, M. B., Lewis, Murphy, Osborne, Powers, Rominger, Sharkey, Slater, and West—24.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 26, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California.

I am returning herewith Senate Bill No. 598 without my approval.

The Attorney General informs me that this bill is unconstitutional as the matter in sections 2 and 3 is not mentioned in the title.

Respectfully submitted.

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

In the absence of Senator Lyon, Senate Bill No. 598 was ordered on unfinished business file.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 26, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California.

I am returning herewith Senate Bill No. 517 without my approval.

The Attorney General calls attention to the fact that this bill is an amendment to chapter 573 of the Statutes of 1919, and should have been an amendment to chapter 719 of the Statutes of 1921, which repealed the 1919 statute.

The bill is approved by the Director of Agriculture and appears to be without objection. It is returned in time so a corrected bill can be adopted.

Respectfully submitted.

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

CONCURRENCE. I hereby transmit herewith the printed Senate Bill No. 152.

A proposed section 172 of the Code of Civil Procedure provides that no convict shall suffer a full pardon until he has first received the advice of the court. This bill amends the statute so as to permit persons of the peace, peace officers or other judges who may possibly have doubts as to how such persons should be treated, to refer such persons to the court for a decision. I am sure the Senate will find this bill to be of great benefit to the State and to the courts. It is respectfully recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

"For the purpose of apportioning the cost of any such project the board shall appoint three assessors who shall be disinterested persons, and shall have no interest in any real estate within said district, and each of whom, before entering upon his duties, shall make and subscribe an oath that he is not in any manner interested in any real estate within said district, directly or indirectly, and that he will perform the duties of an assessor to the best of his ability. Said assessors must assess upon the lands within said district the said sums so estimated by the board, and shall apportion the same according to the benefits that will accrue to each tract of land in said district, respectively, by reason of the expenditure of said sums of money. After said assessors have examined the plan or plans of the works contemplated and the said estimates of the cost, they shall make a preliminary report to the board indicating the exterior boundaries of the lands that in their opinion will be benefited by the expenditure. The assessors shall then appoint a time and place in Santa Clara county when and where they will hear objections to the said report, and also evidence concerning the manner in which said estimated costs should be apportioned. They shall give twenty days' notice of said hearing by publication in a newspaper published in said county. They shall exclude any land that will not be benefited by the expenditure of said sums and shall assess all lands that will be benefited thereby. Said assessors shall make a list of the lands so assessed, which list shall contain a description of the tracts of land assessed, by legal subdivisions, or other boundaries or references sufficient to identify the same; the name of the owner, if known, or if unknown, that fact, and the amount of the charge assessed against each tract. No mistake in the name of the owner, or supposed owner of any real estate shall invalidate the assessment or bonds based thereon. Said lists when completed shall be filed with the secretary of the board and the same shall be open for inspection by the public for at least thirty days. The compensation of said assessors shall be fixed and allowed by the board. The board shall appoint a time and place not less than thirty days after said list has been filed with the secretary when and where it will meet for the purpose of hearing objections to said assessments, and notice of such hearing shall be filed with the secretary and published for two weeks in some newspaper published in said county. At any time before the date of such hearing any person interested in any real estate upon which any charge has been assessed, may file in the office of the secretary of the board written objections to such assessment, stating the grounds of such objections, which said statement shall be verified by the affidavit of such person or some other person who is familiar with the facts. At such hearing the board shall hear such evidence as may be offered touching the correctness of such assessment or the manner of its apportionment, and may modify or amend the same and may reapportion all or any part of the entire assessment. If said assessment shall be reapportioned, the board shall give two weeks' notice as before, and proceed to hear objections as before, and shall then reconsider said assessment and make an order approving said assessment as finally fixed; said assessment lists shall thereupon be by the board filed in the office of the county treasurer of Santa Clara county, and thereafter said assessment valuations shall be used as a basis for assessments in raising funds for the construction, maintenance and repair of the works of said project."

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following messages from the Governor were received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, SACRAMENTO, April 30, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California.

I am returning herewith Senate Bill No. 81 without my approval.

Through error this bill fails to provide for notice being given to interested property owners before the assessment and collection of taxes, which makes the bill unconstitutional.

On this ground, and at the request of the author, I am therefore returning the bill to your honorable body.

Respectfully submitted.

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

VETO OF THE GOVERNOR SUSTAINED.

The question being, "Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor were sustained by the following vote:

AYES—None.

NOES—Senators Allen, Boggs, Breed, Burnett, Canepa, Carr, Chamberlin, Creighton, Crowley, Dennett, Eden, Gates, Dr., Gates E. J., Godsil, Gray, Handy, Harris, Hart, Hurley, Ingram, Jones, McDonald, Murphy, Nelson, Osborne, Powers, Sample, Sharkey, Slater, Swing, and West—31.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 30, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California,

Senate Bill No. 468 is returned herewith without my approval.

This bill would permit the State Board of Prison Directors to fix the length of sentence of a prisoner, after the expiration of nine months of his sentence, instead of after the expiration of the minimum period of his sentence.

In cases of murder of the second degree, the minimum term of imprisonment is ten years and the board cannot now fix the term until after that time has elapsed. This appears to me to be a wise provision and one calculated to deter the commission of murders. To change this time to nine months as proposed would remove a safeguard to society. The author of this bill evidently has a kindly thought in mind but has lost track of the larger aspect.

It is argued that the first degree murderer can now be paroled after serving seven years and that second degree murderers are thus punished more than first degree murderers. This would be an argument in favor of making first degree murderers serve a longer time than seven years or a full life term. Any sentiment in these cases should be with the family of the murdered person. The board at present does not parole first degree murderers until they serve ten years or more. After ten years they will be better able to judge the prisoner sentenced for murder in the second degree than after nine months.

This bill would prove a menace to society and still further weaken the punishment of murderers.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

Senate Bill No. 468 ordered to unfinished business file.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, April 30, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California.

GENTLEMEN: The misuse of the word "doctor" has led in the past to much confusion and many abuses. When the name Dr. "Will Healem" appears on an office door, on a card, or in a newspaper advertisement, it cannot be determined whether he is a dentist, a chiropractor, an osteopath, a corn doctor, a doctor of philosophy, a horse doctor, a nature cure doctor, or a "regular" M. D. This is a condition which should be righted, and Senate Bill No. 331 seeks to do it. The bill attempts to regulate the use of the word "doctor" and prohibits its use in advertising on doors, signs or in newspapers unless accompanied by words showing "educational qualifications," "attainments" (whatever that may mean), and "degrees upon which such title is based," and also the name of the school, college or university that conferred the degree.

I am strongly in favor of the general purpose of this bill and of letting the people know the kind of a doctor they are patronizing.

I am ready to concede the arguments advanced by the M. D.'s in favor of this kind of a law. This bill passed the Senate and Assembly without opposition, but after its adoption strong opposition began to spring up from various sources. This opposition ranges from "regular" M. D.'s to newspaper publishers, and from optometrists to chiropractors. The opposition claim they were unaware of the nature of the bill and had no opportunity to oppose it before the Legislature.

One "regular" writes that he has been practicing many years, but that his college long since ceased to function as a medical school and is now a religious college. He objects to being compelled to advertise as a graduate of a religious school of a sect to which he does not belong. Another "regular" says he is a graduate of a California school and has been practicing for many years, and that to compel him to name his school would put him at a disadvantage with some young and inexperienced doctor who has the prestige of graduating from a famous school like Johns Hopkins.

A member of the State Board of Medical Examiners points out this practical objection: Where several doctors have one reception room the reception room door would be too small to carry words designating all the titles and colleges of the various doctors. Also that the present law could not be complied with in the case of directories in office buildings, which have barely room for the name.

The State Board of Chiropractors, through its president, has filed a protest against this bill and a number of chiropractors have written and wired protests. Several optometrists have protested against the bill.

The Christian Scientists, through their State committee, object on the ground that they have no school and hence cannot comply with the law. This committee says "that in the opinion of counsel it prohibits the use of the title 'Christian Science Practitioner' or the abbreviations 'C. S.', 'C. S. B.', or 'C. S. D.'," and that "Christian Scientists have no desire to interfere with the medical profession, and are in favor of all measures tending to prevent imposition on the public. However, the ambiguities of this bill, and the fact that it seriously affects the interests of the large body of Christian Scientists of California makes the matter of such importance to us as to ask your veto of the bill."

Leading advocates of the bill claim that the Christian Scientists can practice, as they are a religious body not affected by the medical laws. This is true regarding the practice of healing; but this bill relates to advertising and not to healing.

The advocates of the bill also claim it will increase the amount of advertising done by doctors and that that is one of the purposes of the bill. This might be the result. A number of publishers, however, have protested against the bill chiefly on the ground that section five contains a statement establishing the presumption that any doctor who advertises is therefore guilty per se of misrepresentation, imposition and fraud. Section five says: "This act shall be known and cited as the 'act to protect the public from misrepresentation, imposition and fraud of advertising doctors'."

This bill, in the opinion of some attorneys who have examined it, is so involved and ambiguous in its wording as to be impossible of enforcement and hence could not accomplish the end desired.

False and misleading advertising is fully covered by section 654a of the Penal Code known as the "Model Advertising Statute." Any doctor making false claims or false statements or false representations in any kind of an advertisement can now be fully punished under section 654a.

If the advocates of this bill will pass a plainly worded and simple bill requiring all doctors who advertise to indicate what kind of doctors they are, eliminating the school provision and eliminating section five, I will gladly sign it.

For these reasons I am compelled to return herewith Senate Bill No. 331 to you without my approval."

Respectfully submitted.

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

On request of Senator Hurley, Senate Bill No. 331 was ordered on unfinished business file.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, May 1, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California.

GENTLEMEN: Senate Bill No. 593 is returned herewith without my approval.

This bill adds section 3968 to the Political Code and relates to the changes in county boundaries. Sections 3969 and 3973 of the Political Code fully cover this matter. The Surveyor General advises me that the procedure provided in this bill is rather involved while the present method is simple.

Respectfully submitted.

The duties of such advisory board shall be to obtain the necessary information relating to policies and methods for the protecting of the oil and gas sands and formations and preventing injury or damage thereto, and for preventing loss or waste of oil or gas; and it shall be the duty of such advisory board to advise the state oil and gas supervisor concerning the best and most practical methods and policies to be adopted and followed in the conduct of the duties of his office. The advice of the advisory board shall be for the assistance of the state oil and gas supervisor, but shall not be obligatory upon him. He shall sit with the board at all sessions.

The advisory board, for the purpose of performing its duties shall be entitled to the information and data in the hands of the state oil and gas supervisor or any of his deputies, and any information which is not of a public character shall be kept secret by the members of the advisory board. Said board may also take the opinions and views of operators and other persons skilled in the oil business.

The seven members of the advisory board shall be elected at large for the entire state at the same times and places that elections are held under the provisions of section ten of this act for the election of district oil and gas commissioners. Such times and places and the details of each such meeting shall be fixed by the state oil and gas supervisor, and he shall give at least two weeks previous notice of such meeting and election by letter addressed to each of the persons, corporations and partnerships entitled to vote, as in section ten of this act specified, at his or its post office address or principal place of business. At said election in each district each of those entitled to vote therein may be represented by one person holding the written authority of such voter to act for him or it at such meeting. At such meeting and election, each voter shall be entitled to one vote for each of the seven members of the advisory board who are required to be selected. In addition thereto each voter shall be entitled for each one hundred dollars ($100) or fraction thereof which said voter shall have paid in accordance with his last assessment under this act, to cast one vote for each of the members of said advisory board required to be elected. The state oil and gas supervisor shall canvass the votes cast in the several districts and determine the total number of votes cast for each candidate, and declare and certify the election of the seven candidates receiving the highest number of votes, provided that in the case of voters entitled to vote in more than one district, but one vote of any such voter shall be considered for each candidate, aside from the number of votes to which said voter is entitled by reason of the amount of the last assessment paid by him under this act on account of property or operations within said respective districts.

SEC. 8. Section twenty-five of said act approved June 10, 1915, as amended, is hereby repealed.

SEC. 9. Section forty-three of said act approved June 10, 1915, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 43. Any person, firm, corporation or association claiming and protesting as herein provided that the assessment made or charges assessed against him or it by the state mineralogist is void, in whole or in part, may bring an action against the state treasurer for the recovery of the whole or any part of such charges, penalties or costs paid on such assessment, upon the grounds stated in said protest, but no action may be brought later than the third Monday in February next following the day upon which the charges were due, nor unless such person, firm, corporation or association shall have filed with the state controller at the time of payment such charges, a written protest stating whether the whole assessment or charge is claimed to be void, or if a part only, what part, and the grounds upon which such claim is founded, and when so paid under protest the payment shall in no case be regarded as voluntary.

Whenever, under the provisions of this section, an action is commenced against the state treasurer, a copy of the complaint and of the summons must be served upon the treasurer, or his deputy. At the time the treasurer demurs or answers, he may demand that the action be tried in the superior court of the county of Sacramento, which demand must be granted. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to pleadings, proofs, trials and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for.

A failure to begin such action within the time herein specified shall be a bar against the recovery of such charges. In any action the court shall have the power to render judgment for the plaintiff for any part or portion of the charge, penalties, or costs found to be void and so paid by plaintiff upon such assessment.

SEC. 10. Section forty-four of said act approved June 10, 1915, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 44. The state controller shall, on or before the thirtieth day of May next following the delinquency of any charge as provided in this act, bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction, in the name of the people of the State of California, in the county in which the property assessed is situated, to collect any delinquent charges or assessments, together with any penalties or costs, which have not been paid in accordance with the provisions of this act and appearing delinquent upon the records of assessments and charges for the petroleum and gas fund in this action provided for.

The attorney general of California shall commence and prosecute such action to final judgment and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for.

Payments of the penalties and charges, or amount of the judgment recovered in such action must be made to the state treasurer. In such actions the record of assessment and charges for oil protection, or a copy of so much thereof as is applicable in said action, duly certified by the controller showing unpaid charges against any person, firm, corporation or association assessed by the state mineralogist is prima facie evidence of the assessment upon the property, the delinquency, the amount of charges, penalties, and costs due and unpaid to the state, and that the person, firm, corporation or association is indebted to the people of the State of California in the amount of charges and penalties therein appearing unpaid and that all the forms of law in relation to the assessment of such charges have been complied with."

"34. There is hereby created in the state treasury a fund which shall be known as the 'motor vehicle fund'. All moneys received by the department under any of the provisions of this act must be paid into the state treasury within twenty-four hours after the receipt thereof and shall be deposited to the credit of the motor vehicle fund, but if at any time such payment can not be made because of the intervention of a Sunday or a holiday, then such money shall be paid into the state treasury before twelve o'clock noon of the first business day following such Sunday or holiday; provided, however, that there is also hereby created in the state treasury a fund which shall be known as the 'transfer and operators' license fund,' and the moneys received by the department for transfers and for operators' and chauffeurs' licenses shall not be credited to the motor vehicle fund but to the credit of said transfer and operators' license fund. One-half of the net receipts under this act, except those credited to the transfer and operators' license fund, shall be paid from the motor vehicle fund to the counties from which the moneys were received, as determined by the places of residence of the persons to whom the registration certicates are issued, and all such amounts so returned shall be paid into the road funds of the several counties receiving the same, and shall be expended by such counties exclusively in the construction and maintenance of roads, bridges and culverts in said counties respectively. The board of supervisors of any county, or city and county, which is empowered by law to expend money for the construction of public highways outside of its corporate limits, may expend any portion of the amounts paid to the said county, or city and county and deposited in the road fund thereof, as herein in this subdivision of this section directed, in and for the construction of public highways outside of its corporate limits and may, by ordinance of its board of supervisors, transfer said amounts to the account of the highway commission of the State of California and may by said ordinance specify and determine the route and type of construction of said highway, and the said amount thus transferred shall be expended by the said highway commission for the purpose specified and determined in said ordinance, and not otherwise. Of the moneys in said motor vehicle fund, when such action has been authorized by the board of control, the department may draw, without at the time furnishing vouchers and itemized statements, sums not to exceed in the aggregate ten thousand dollars, said sums so drawn to be used as a revolving fund where cash advances are necessary. At the close of each fiscal year, or at any other time, upon demand of the board of control, the moneys so drawn must be accounted for and substantiated by vouchers and itemized statements submitted to and audited by the board of control and by the controller. All moneys remaining in the motor vehicle fund after the expenditure herein authorized, in addition to all sums that have been heretofore or that may be appropriated hereafter by the legislature for the same purpose, shall be expended under the direction of the state department of engineering for the maintenance and improvement of the state roads and highways under the jurisdiction of said department of engineering, and for the maintenance and improvement of roads and highways in state parks subject to the approval of the official or officials charged by law with the management and control of such parks, such moneys to be so drawn from said motor vehicle fund for the purpose of such maintenance and improvement upon warrants executed by the state controller upon demand made by the state department of engineering, and allowed and audited by the board of control. CALIFORNIA STATE FEDERATION OF LABOR,

LEGISLATIVE HEADQUARTERS,
SACRAMENTO, May 3, 1923.

Senator J. M. Inman,
Senate Chamber, Sacramento.

MY DEAR SENATOR: My attention has been called to the insinuation that Senate Bill No. 64 may be classed as a "cinch bill".

In order that there may be no misunderstanding, I take the liberty of summarizing the facts in connection with Senate Bill No. 64.

Senate Bill No. 64 was introduced by you at my request. The bill was drafted by the executive committee of the Japanese Exclusion League, on which committee the following well-known organizations are represented. The Native Sons of California, the American Legion, the California State Federation of Labor and others.

After formal approval by the executive committee of the Japanese Exclusion League, the bill was given to me for introduction in the Legislature. I asked you to introduce the bill.

(1) Because you have always been willing to make a fight "to keep California white", and

(2) Because it is generally agreed that you can not be bought, bribed or bluffed by the pro-Japanese interests.

With all good wishes, I am sincerely yours,

PAUL SCHIARRENBERG,
Secretary-Treasurer.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 51.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California to amend section 14 of article XIII of the constitution, relative to taxation.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring. That the Legislature of the State of California, at its forty-fifth regular session, commencing on the eighth day of January, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of said Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that section 14 of article XIII of the constitution of this State be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14. Taxes levied, assessed and collected as hereinafter provided upon railroads, and street railways, whether operated in one or more counties; sleeping car, dining car, drawingroom car and palace car companies, refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loading and other car companies operating upon railroads in this State; companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel or stage line in this State; telegraph companies; telephone companies; companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity; insurance companies; banks, banking associations, savings and loan societies, and trust companies; and taxes upon all franchises of every kind and nature, shall be entirely and exclusively for State purposes, and shall be levied, assessed and collected in the manner hereinafter provided. The word "companies" as used in this section shall include persons, partnerships, joint stock associations, companies, and corporations.

(a) All railroad companies, and street railways, whether operated in one or more counties; all sleeping car, dining car, drawingroom car, and palace car companies, all refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit and other car-loading and other car companies, operating upon the railroads in this State; all companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel or stage line in this State; all telegraph and telephone companies; and all companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity shall annually pay to the State a tax upon their franchises, roadways, roadbeds, rails, rolling stock, poles, wires, pipes, canals, conduits, rights of way, and other property, or any part thereof used exclusively in the operation of their business in this State, computed as follows: Said tax shall be equal to the percentages hereinafter fixed upon the gross receipts from operation of such companies, and each thereof within this State. When such companies are operating partly within and partly without this State, the gross receipts within this State shall be deemed to be all receipts on business beginning and ending within this State, and a proportion, based upon the proportion of the mileage within this State to the entire mileage over which such business is done, of receipts on all business passing through, into, or out of this State.

The percentages above mentioned shall be as follows: On all railroad companies, seven per cent; on all street railways, herein defined to include interurban electric railways and gasoline propelled railways, five and one-quarter per cent; on all sleeping car, dining car, drawingroom car, palace car companies, refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loading and other car companies, five and one-quarter per cent; on all companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel or stage line, one per cent; on all telegraph and telephone companies, five and one-half per cent; on all companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity, seven and one-half per cent. Such taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county and municipal, upon the property above enumerated of such companies except as otherwise in this section provided; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to release any such company from the payment of any amount agreed to be paid or required by law to be paid for any special privilege or franchise granted by any of the municipal authorities of this State.

(b) Every insurance company or association, except county fire insurance companies organized under and by virtue of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and management of county fire insurance companies," approved April 1, 1897, and all acts amendatory thereof, doing business in this State shall annually pay to the State a tax of two and sixty hundredths per cent upon the amount of the gross premiums received upon its business done in this State, less return premiums and reinsurance in companies or associations authorized to do business in this State; provided, that there shall be deducted from said two and sixty hundredths per cent upon the gross premiums the amount of any county and municipal taxes paid by such companies on real estate owned by them in this State. This tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county and municipal, upon the property of such companies, except county and municipal taxes on real estate, and except as otherwise in this section provided; provided, that when by the laws of any other state or country, any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money, or of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, are imposed on insurance companies of this State, doing business in such other state or country, or upon their agents therein, in excess of such taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money, or of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, imposed upon insurance companies of such other state or country, so long as such laws continue in force, the same obligations and prohibitions of whatsoever kind may be imposed by the Legislature upon insurance companies of such other state or country doing business in this State.

(c) The shares of capital stock of all banks, organized under the laws of this State, or of the United States, or of any other state and located in this State, shall be assessed and taxed to the owners or holders thereof by the State Board of Equalization, in the manner to be prescribed by law, in the city or town where the bank is located and not elsewhere. There shall be levied and assessed upon such shares of capital stock an annual tax, payable to the State, of one and forty-five hundredths per centum upon the value thereof. The value of each share of stock in each bank, except such as are in liquidation, shall be taken to be the amount paid in thereon, together with its pro rata of the accumulated surplus and undivided profits. The value of each share of stock in each bank which is in liquidation shall be taken to be its pro rata of the actual assets of such bank. This tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, State, county and municipal, upon such shares of stock and upon the property of such banks, except county and municipal taxes on real estate and except as otherwise in this section provided. In determining the value of the capital stock of any bank there shall be deducted from the value, as defined above, the value, as assessed for county taxes, of any real estate, other than mortgage interests therein, owned by such bank and taxed for county purposes. The word "bank" is liable to the State for this tax and the same shall be paid to the State by them on behalf of the stockholders in the manner and at the time prescribed by law, and they shall have a lien upon the shares of stock and upon any dividends declared thereon to secure the amount so paid.

The income earned, reserve, surplus, undivided profits and all other property belonging to unincorporated banks or bankers of this State, or held by any bank located in this State which has no shares of capital stock, or employed in this State by any business, association, or other representatives of any banks doing business outside of the State of California, shall be likewise assessed and taxed to such banks or bankers by the said Board of Equalization, in the manner to be provided by law and taxed at the same rate that is levied upon the value of capital stock of incorporated banks, as provided in the first paragraph of this subdivision. The value of said property shall be determined by taking the entire property invested in such business, together with all the reserve, surplus, and undivided profits, at their full cash value, and deducting therefrom the value as assessed for county taxes of any real estate, other than mortgage interests therein, owned by such bank, and taxed for county purposes. Such taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, State, county and municipal, upon the property of the banks and bankers, mentioned in this paragraph, except county and municipal taxes on real estate and except as otherwise in this section provided.

It is the intention of this paragraph that all money capital and property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this paragraph shall be assessed and taxed at the same rate as an incorporated bank, provided for in the first paragraph of this subdivision. In determining the value of the money capital and property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this subdivision, the said State Board of Equalization shall include and assess to such banks all property and everything of value owned or held by them, which go to make up the value of the capital stock of such banks and bankers, if the same were incorporated and had shares of capital stock.

The word "banks" as used in this subdivision shall include banking association, savings and loan societies and trust companies, but shall not include building and loan associations.

(d) All franchises, other than those expressly provided for in this section, shall be assessed at their actual cash value, in the manner to be provided by law, and shall be taxed at the rate of one and six-tenths per centum each year, and the taxes collected thereon shall be exclusively for the benefit of the State.

(e) Out of the revenues from the taxes provided for in this section, together with all other State revenues, there shall be first set apart the moneys to be applied by the State to the support of the public school system and the State University. In the event that the above named revenues are at any time deemed insufficient to meet the annual expenditures of the State, including the above named expenditures for educational purposes, there may be levied, in the manner to be provided by law, a tax, for State purposes, on all the property in the State including the classes of property enumerated in this section, sufficient to meet the deficiency. All property enumerated in subdivisions (a), (b), and (d) of this section shall be subject to taxation, in the manner provided by law, to pay the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness created and outstanding by any city, city and county, county, town, township or district, before the adoption of this section. The taxes so paid for principal and interest on such bonded indebtedness shall be deducted from the total amount paid in taxes for State purposes.

(f) All the provisions of this section shall be self-executing, and the Legislature shall pass all laws necessary to carry this section into effect, and shall provide for a valuation and assessment of the property enumerated in this section, and shall prescribe the duties of the State Board of Equalization and any other officers in connection with the administration thereof. The rates of taxation fixed in this section shall remain in force until changed by the Legislature, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof. The taxes herein provided for shall become a lien on the first Monday in March of each year after the adoption of this section and shall become due and payable on the first Monday in July thereafter. The gross receipts and gross premiums herein mentioned shall be computed for the year ending the thirty-first day of December prior to the levy of such taxes and the value of any property mentioned herein shall be fixed as of the first Monday in March. Nothing herein contained shall affect any tax levied or assessed prior to the adoption of this section; and all laws in relation to such taxes in force at the time of the adoption of this section shall remain in force until changed by the Legislature. The State shall reimburse any and all counties which sustain loss of revenue by the withdrawal of property from county taxation for the net loss in county revenue occasioned by the withdrawal of such property from county taxation. The Legislature shall provide for reimbursement from the general funds of any county to districts therein where loss is occasioned in such districts by the withdrawal from local taxation of property taxed for State purposes only.

(a) No injunction shall ever issue in any suit, action or proceeding in any court against this State or against any officer thereof to prevent or enjoin the collection of any tax levied under the provisions of this section; but after payment action may be maintained to recover any tax illegally collected in such manner and at such time as may now or hereafter be provided by law.

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication from Senator McDonald was received and read:

[From San Francisco Chronicle, May 3, 1923.]

HANDS OFF HARBOR FUNDS.

GOVERNOR RICHARDSON SAYS REVENUES WILL BE LEFT TO COMMISSION TO EXPEND.

Governor Richardson yesterday affirmed his intention to leave the revenues of San Francisco harbor in the hands of the Harbor Commission for the support and development of its port facilities.

That is the only right course. Moreover, it is the only legal course under the law as it stands. To divert one penny of the revenues created by the operation of San Francisco harbor to the general fund, or to curtail the expenditure of those revenues for the proper upkeep and development of the harbor would require a special act of the Legislature amending the law under which the Harbor Board now operates.

The Legislature has power to do this. But Governor Richardson's statement makes it plain that such an attempt would not have his support or approval.

The Governor is to be congratulated on his stand. Nothing more disastrous to San Francisco harbor, which is an interest of the entire State of California as much as of this city, could happen than to divert from the legitimate development of the port the funds created by the harbor itself.

The Governor says properly that the Harbor Commission's expenditures must be within its estimated revenue. That has always been the case. San Francisco harbor is completely self-supporting, the only self-sustaining port in America. While its tolls are lower than those of other ports, out of them the harbor pays all its expenses of upkeep and operation, carries on development for expanding needs and retires its own bonds. It has never called upon the general fund for a penny except in the single instance of the extraordinary emergency created by the fire of 1906, when it received an appropriation of $100,000.

Under the law the harbor board can have no surplus, since it is required to fix tolls at only such a rate as will produce sufficient revenue for operation and repair, the retirement of bonds, and necessary development. Any diversion of its funds must necessarily, therefore, cripple or stop development.

Governor Richardson will not permit this. His declaration is unmistakable. His guarantee that he will not take the revenues of the harbor away from the commission means that the port is safe.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTES.

The following explanations of votes were presented and ordered printed in the Journal:

This bill in my opinion not only fails to comply with what undoubtedly was the desire of the voters, but creates a condition of entirely unnecessary confusion. I do not believe that it complies with the plain and explicit provisions of the law, but it seems to be the nearest approach to such compliance as is possible at this time and there seems no other alternative.

Also:

While the undersigned members of the Senate do not approve Assembly Bill No. 999, known as the budget bill, in its present form largely because of the increased appropriations provided for therein by the amendments adopted in the Assembly against the recommendations of the Governor and the Board of Control, we have reluctantly voted in favor of the measure in an effort to expedite its passage in the Senate to the end that the same will reach the Governor and the various items therein be finally approved or rejected by him at the earliest possible moment.

The sixty day discussion which the budget has just passed has demonstrated to us that additional and protracted discussion and debate of the budget or any amendments thereto or the language thereof in the Senate would accomplish no good purpose or produce any satisfactory result at this time.

We have, therefore, voted in favor of Assembly Bill No. 999 in its present form, and without any attempt to amend or reduce the amount of the same, with a full and complete confidence that the Governor in the exercise of his power and authority under the provisions of Constitutional Amendment No. 12, known as the budget amendment, to approve or reject any items in the bill will so amend or reduce the budget as to meet with our hearty approval.

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was presented by Senator Gates, E. J., and ordered printed in the Journal:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, OFFICE OF CONTROLLER,
SACRAMENTO, May 2, 1923.

Hon. Egbert J. Gates,
Chairman Senate Finance Committee,
Sacramento, California.

HONORABLE SIR: During the budget debate I have been quoted and misquoted as to the position of the Controller with respect to legislation now before you and for this reason I desire to make clear to your committee my position with respect to the budget appropriation bill now before your body.

I have been requested by many legislators with reference to the stand that I would take upon the budget bill now before your committee. It is in reply to these inquiries that the matter has been taken up with my bonding company. In order that I may be correctly quoted, I beg to say that I have been advised by my bonding company to withhold payments upon my claims that may be presented for payment that have not been included in the appropriation bill now before you, or subsequent appropriation bills that may be enacted by the present Legislature and signed by the Governor.

I am advising you at this time of my decision to abide by the request of my bonding company in order that you may have definite information regarding my action with respect to the above mentioned items when presented to me for payment after the first of July, 1923.

I further desire to inform you that all collections for, and balances remaining, in the fund for self-supporting agencies, so called, that have been created by special statutes previous to this session of the Legislature will be ordered into the general fund of the State by me, and claims for the support of these agencies will be audited and paid against the sum appropriated in the appropriation bill now before you. When that is exhausted, no further claims will be allowed by me against the funds collected under authority of the statutes creating the several self-supporting departments, except upon orders of the Supreme Court of this State.

It is obvious that the above procedure is the only safe course for me to follow, when it is considered that the same rule will apply in both instances; that is, in so far as the appropriation bill is concerned and the self supporting agencies.

I am attaching herewith a copy of the request from my sureties, for your consideration.

Yours very truly,

(Signed)

RAY L. RILEY, State Controller.

MOTION.

Senator Breed moved that all Senators who desire to explain their votes on Assembly Bill No. 999 be granted permission to have such explanations printed in the Journal.

This bill amends the 1919 act by authorizing the county authorities to exchange portions of the granted lands for other lands of equal value. This feature of the bill is unconstitutional. Section 3 of article XIV of the constitution provides that "all tide lands within two miles of any incorporated city or town in this State, and fronting on the waters of any harbor, estuary, bay or inlet, used for the purpose of navigation, shall be withheld from grant or sale to private persons, firms, partnerships or corporations."

Respectfully submitted.

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was received by Senator Rominger and ordered printed in the Journal:

The following article appeared in the columns of the American Federation of Labor, April 28, 1923:

CARELESS LAW MAKING ENDANGERS DEMOCRACY.

Seattle, April 28.—Our structure of government is endangered when any branch of it is brought into such disrepute with the people generally as is the case with our present state legislature, says W. M. Short, president of the Washington state federation of labor, writing in the official bulletin of that organization.

"The dissatisfaction with the legislature is not confined to any particular group, but each session sees an increasing number of people from every walk of life leaving the capitol disgusted with the Legislature."

President Short advances several theories for this condition, and declares that it is "neither practicable nor possible to take ninety-seven people for the lower house and forty-two for the Senate, chosen from every walk of life, and assemble them together once every two years for a period of sixty days, and expect them to give the necessary thought and time, and apply the legislative skill necessary to the proper enactment of our laws, and dispose of from three hundred to five hundred bills in that short period with no opportunity for previous thought and consideration. Yet this is the condition that obtains."

The trade unionist recommends that the legislative system be replaced by one legislative body, and that the State be redistricted, with a mandatory redistricting after every census. The new legislative body should remain in session at least nine months of the year and a salary of not less than $3,000 should be paid members.

PETITION.

The following petition was presented by Senator Ingram, and ordered printed in the Journal.

To Hon. Thomas Ingram, Senator, Third District, and Mrs. Cora M. Woodbridge, Assemblyman, Ninth District.

We, the undersigned citizens of the State of California, hereby petition you and all other members of the California State Legislature, to use all your ability to prevent the enactment of an amendment of the game laws proposed by the stockmen of this State, having for its object the prevention of the use of one little dog in hunting deer, as at present permitted.

In this connection please be advised:

1. That this amendment is sought by a class of people (stockmen and their herders) and a few game wardens who are also stockraisers and who have at all times heretofore, are now, and will continue to be "dog hunting deer hunters themselves". They "dog" their own cattle by dogs trained for that purpose, yet complain that the mere sight of the deer dog of the hunter stampedes their cattle; they hunt deer with the same dogs, and if the inhibition becomes a law they will enjoy a monopoly of this manner of hunting.

2. A deer hunting dog never directly pays any attention to stock or poultry of any kind, and the sight of a sneaking still hunter will stampede cattle just as readily as the sight of a dog in the woods.

3. The use of the dog prevents the enormous waste in wounded deer by the still hunters, and scatters and often destroys the wild animals that feed on the stockman's herd.

4. Hunting with dog tends to the preservation of human life; who ever heard of hunters who use the dog shooting a man for a deer?

5. The stockraisers having satisfied themselves that they will succeed in asking for this amendment are already proposing to ask for an appropriation and the appointment of a number of "State hunters" to destroy the wild animals that prey on their stock. State hunters would use dogs.

6. There is room for the cattleman and the hunter on the vast expanse of reserved land in this State, to which the government invites all, to visit, camp, hunt and fish and upon which the government permits the stockman to graze his herd. The stockman would not attempt to hog it all. Let us keep our dogs; we are many and enjoy it.

We thank you.

GEO. COUGHLAN, Nevada City,
And 57 others.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTES.

Explanation of Senator Ed. P. Sample of his vote on Assembly Bill No. 999, on final passage in the Senate on May 3, 1923.

I voted "aye" on the passage of Assembly Bill No. 999 in the Senate, on May 3, 1923, for the reason that, owing to the lateness of the session, I did not wish to postpone the passage of the same in the Senate and thereby delay its reaching the Governor for his consideration.

I regarded amendments increasing appropriations placed in the bill in the Assembly merely as suggestions made to the Governor for his consideration and, in the event that he did not approve the increases so placed in the bill, I intended to support the bill as amended by the Governor and accept his recommendations when the bill is returned to the Assembly by him.

On motion of Senator Lyon, the further consideration of the motion to reconsider the vote whereby Assembly Bill No. 85 was passed, was continued until the next legislative day.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

Explanation of vote upon special appropriation bills.

Unquestionably it was the idea of the voters that the budget amendment meant what it said, and that the budget bill prepared thereunder would be a channel of information to the public, and a means of control by the Legislature of all of the expenses of the State.

Special appropriations should only be made for extraordinary expenses, such, for example, as the Mother Lode highway.

Under the policy adopted by the Legislature the purpose of the budget amendment is defeated and the law made a farce.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, May 9, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California.

The constitution (chapter IV, section 6), provides that the census of the United States shall be the basis of fixing and adjusting the legislative districts of the State; and the Legislature shall, at its first session after each census, adjust such districts and reapportion the representation so as to preserve them as nearly equal in population as may be. There was a census taken in 1920 and the Legislature of 1921 was faced squarely with the duty of reapportionment. This duty was not performed. The present Legislature is faced with the same plain duty. One measure on reapportionment has been defeated and some doubt has arisen as to whether any action will be taken at this session.

While I have no desire to unduly influence legislation, I want to impress upon you the importance of obeying the constitution, and, to advise you that inasmuch as ample time remains for the enactment of a reapportionment measure, if you fail at this session of the Legislature to adopt a reapportionment bill, I will not call a special session for that purpose.

The need for reapportionment in compliance with the constitution is best shown by the following table giving the population of the various assembly districts according to the 1920 census :

District	Population
First	21,304
Second	37,857
Third	15,862
Fourth	21,396
Fifth	34,655
Sixth	24,116
Seventh	30,030
Eighth	37,595
Ninth	29,444
Tenth	40,602
Eleventh	26,220
Twelfth and Thirteenth (average)	25,395
Fourteenth and Fifteenth (average)	45,489
Sixteenth	20,645
Seventeenth	27,342
Eighteenth	53,889
Nineteenth and Twentieth (average)	39,952
Twenty-first to Thirty-third (average)	38,975
Thirty-fourth to Forty-first (average)	43,022
Forty-second	36,781
Forty-third	26,269
Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth (average)	50,294
Forty-sixth	43,557
Forty-seventh	18,534
Forty-eighth	36,975
Forty-ninth	36,782
Fiftieth to Fifty-second (average)	42,926
Fifty-third	21,893
Fifty-fourth	22,031
Fifty-fifth	59,031
Fifty-sixth	54,843
Fifty-seventh and Fifty-eighth (average)	26,700
Fifty-ninth	41,097
Sixtieth	28,724
Sixty-first to Seventy-fifth (average)	62,429
Seventy-sixth	61,375
Seventy-seventh	50,297
Seventy-eighth	43,383
Seventy-ninth and Eightieth (average)	56,124

The average population for the assembly districts, according to the 1920 census, should be 43,846. The population of the districts run from 15,862 to 62,429. The population of the senatorial districts show the same inequalities. The constitution not only says that the senatorial and assembly districts shall be divided "as nearly equal in population as may be", but shall be composed of contiguous territory, that no county, or city and county, shall be divided unless it contains sufficient population to form two or more districts, and that part of a county shall not be united with any other county in forming a district.

I hope you will give this matter your immediate attention.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

In such case it shall not be necessary that the whole of such road or roads be constructed at one time as a single project, and the board of directors may provide in said order that the same or any portion thereof shall be constructed in units or sections. The cost of the construction of such roads, or of each unit or section, shall be defrayed from assessments levied upon the lands to be benefited thereby. If the order calling the election provides for construction by units or sections it shall describe the same and designate the order in which they shall be constructed. The provisions of this act regarding the notice for and holding of elections for the issuance of bonds shall apply to the elections provided for in this section so far as practicable. The order calling the election shall state whether or not the assessment shall be payable at one time or in semi-annual installments; if in installments, the said order shall specify the number of the installments, and the amount of each installment. If two-thirds of the vote cast at said election are in favor of levying said assessment the board of directors shall so declare and shall appoint three commissioners to assess upon the land in the district which will be benefited by the carrying out of the plans for which said assessment was voted, an amount sufficient, as required herein, to provide for the payment of said assessment. One of said commissioners may be the engineer of the district, but none of said commissioners shall have any interest directly or indirectly in any real estate in the district. Each commissioner, before entering upon the duties herein prescribed, shall take and subscribe an oath to the effect that he is not interested in any real estate within the district and that he will perform the duties of commissioner in accordance with the provisions of this act, to the best of his ability. Such oath, when so subscribed, shall be filed with the secretary of the district. Said commissioners shall receive such compensation as may be agreed upon between them and the board of directors. A majority of said commissioners must concur in any action taken by them and must sign the assessment list herein provided for. If the board of directors shall so determine, only one such commissioner need be appointed, and he shall take oath as aforesaid and perform the duties herein required to be performed by the commissioners. The commissioners shall view the lands in the district and assess the total amount of said assessment upon such of said lands as will be benefited by the carrying out of the plans for which said assessment was voted. Said total amount shall be apportioned to and assessed upon the respective parcels of said lands in accordance with the benefits that will accrue to the respective parcels from the carrying out of said plans. The commissioners shall segregate said assessment so as to show the amounts that will become due and payable in installments as hereinafter provided. If the plans for which said assessment was voted shall have provided for the acquisition or construction of any roads in units or sections at various times, then the commissioners shall assess as aforesaid upon the respective parcels of land that will be benefited by the acquisition or construction of each such unit or section, the total amount, computed as aforesaid, to provide for the payment of the assessment specified for the acquisition or construction of each such unit or section.

SEC. 16a. Said commissioners shall prepare a list of the lands within the district, which shall show under appropriate headings the following:

1. The name of the owner, or the names of the owners, of each parcel of land separately listed. If the name of any owner is not known to the commissioners it shall be designated as "Unknown owner."

2. A description of each parcel of land separately assessed, sufficient to identify it.

3. The number of acres in each parcel separately assessed.

4. The amount in dollars and cents of the total assessment on each parcel of land separately assessed and the amounts of the respective installments thereof that will become due and payable and the respective dates at which they will respectively become due and payable in accordance with this act.

The last equalized assessment roll of the county in which any land so listed is situated shall be sufficient evidence of the ownership, description and area of such land, but the commissioners may make changes from said assessment roll in accordance with any facts of which they have knowledge, or in accordance with the records in the office of the county recorder of said county. No misnomer of any owner of land and no other error in regard to the ownership, description or area of such land shall invalidate said assessment.

SEC. 16b. When the commissioners shall have completed the assessment as above provided they, or a majority of them, shall sign it and file it with the secretary of the district, who shall present it to the board of directors at any meeting thereof. The board shall fix a time for the hearing of objections to and petitions for the modifications of said assessment, which time shall be not less than twenty-five days nor more than forty days from the date of the meeting at which the time was fixed. The secretary shall give notice of the time and place for said hearing by publication for at least three successive weeks. Said notice shall state the fact of the appointment of said commissioners and the purposes of their appointment and shall notify all persons interested in any land within the district that said assessment list is on file at the office of the district and open for public inspection and that the board of directors of the district will meet at the office thereof at the time fixed as aforesaid to hear and act upon any objection to or application for the modification of the assessment, provided that such objection or application is in writing and shall have been filed in the office of the district before the time fixed for said hearing. At said time the board shall meet at the office of the district and receive all such written objections and applications and shall proceed to a hearing thereon. If a quorum of said board is not present at the time fixed, a minority of the board or the secretary may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present, but no such adjournment shall be for more than forty-eight hours. The board may adjourn any hearing to a place other than the office of the district if such adjournment is deemed proper to facilitate the hearing. The board shall hear all competent and relevant evidence that may be offered in support of such objections and applications and in opposition thereto and may call witnesses and make such investigations relating to said assessment as it may deem proper and may adjourn from time to time for such purposes. At the conclusion of the hearing the board, if it shall find that any changes in said assessment are necessary, it shall make such changes so that said assessment shall be in accordance with the requirements of this act, and in so doing the board may increase or decrease the assessment upon to any parcel of land or change the boundaries or the area of any parcel or make any other changes in accordance with the facts shown at said hearing or by said investigation, but no increase in the assessment upon any parcel of land shall be made by the board unless the owner or owners of said land shall be present when such increase was proposed or discussed by the board or unless a time for the consideration of such proposed increase shall have been fixed by the board and notice to appear at said time to show cause why such increase should not be made shall have been served on the owner or owners of the land at least five days before said time.

SEC. 16c. After such changes, if any, have been made the board shall by resolution confirm and adopt said assessment as so modified, or as submitted by the commissioners if no changes have been made by the board. A copy of said assessment list as so confirmed and adopted with a copy of the resolution of the board confirming and adopting said assessment shall be certified by the secretary as correct and shall be filed in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the district is situated. From and after the filing of said copies of said list and said resolution in the office of said county recorder, the assessment upon each parcel of land described in said list shall be a lien thereon. The assessment list, when confirmed and adopted by the board of directors as aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity and validity of all proceedings in relation thereto and that all the requirements of law in regard to said assessment have been complied with, and no action attacking the regularity, correctness or validity of said assessment shall be maintained unless such action is commenced within thirty days after said certified copies of said assessment list and said resolution of the board of directors shall have been filed with said county recorder.

SEC. 16d. The assessment confirmed and adopted by the board of directors as aforesaid shall be due and payable at one time or in semi-annual installments, in accordance with the provisions of the order of the board of directors calling the election at which the levying of said assessment was authorized. The assessment, if payable at one time, or the first installment, if payable in installments, shall be due and payable on the third Monday in October or the third Monday in May next following the date of the said election, as may have been specified in the order calling the election. Thereafter, one installment, if the assessment is payable in installments, shall be due and payable semi-annually on the third Monday in May and the third Monday in October each year until all of the installments have been paid.

If any such assessment or installment due and payable under the provisions of this act in the month of October of any year is not paid before five o'clock p.m. of the third Monday in December of that year, said assessment or installment shall then become delinquent, and if any assessment or installment due and payable under the provisions of this act in May of any year is not paid before five o'clock p.m. of the third Monday in June of that year, said assessment or installment shall then become delinquent. When any assessment or installment becomes delinquent, a penalty of ten per cent of the amount thereof must forthwith be added thereto by the officer whose duty it may be to collect said assessment or installment and said penalty must thereafter be collected with said assessment or installment as herein-after provided. Any assessment or any installment of an assessment may be paid before it is due, to the officer charged with the collection of the assessments of the district.

SEC. 16e. Whenever any assessment has been confirmed and adopted by the board of directors as aforesaid, the secretary shall file with the tax collector of the county in which the district is situated a list showing the name of each person assessed, the description of each parcel of land assessed and the area thereof, as the same appear on the assessment list, the amount assessed against each parcel assessed, the amount of each installment of said assessment if the same is payable in installments and the date when said assessment or the dates when the respective installments thereof will be due and payable. Said list shall be certified by the secretary as correct, and shall contain blank columns in which the tax collector may enter the amount and date of the payment of each assessment or installment thereof, the date of its delinquency if it becomes delinquent, the total amount due after delinquency and the date of payment and amount paid on any delinquent assessment. The secretary shall also give notice by publication once a week for two weeks, beginning in the month in which any assessment or assessments or installment or installments thereof are due and payable, stating that said assessment or assessments or installment or installments of an assessment or assessments of said district are due and are payable at the office of the tax collector of the county in which the land assessed is situated, and stating also the time when said payment will become delinquent and that a penalty of ten per cent of the amount due will be added if payment is not made before said time. Failure to give such notice shall not invalidate or affect any assessment confirmed and adopted after a report by commissioners and a hearing by the board of directors. The tax collector shall receive all moneys paid on special assessments, annual assessments and installments of special assessments of the district as shown by the list or lists filed with him, and on or before the last Monday in each month shall pay to the treasurer of the county in which the district is situated all moneys so received. Said treasurer shall give receipts for all moneys so received by him and shall transmit to the Secretary of the district signed duplicates of all such receipts.

Sec. 17. For the purpose of providing moneys for the payment of principal and interest on district bonds as the same become due and payable and for the payment of the general expenses of the district and the maintenance and repair of its roads, an annual assessment shall be levied upon the lands in the district. The secretary must, between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in June, in each year, assess all real estate in the district, to the persons who own, claim or have possession or control thereof, at its full cash value, as follows: He must prepare an assessment book with appropriate headings, in which must be listed all such property within the district, in which must be specified, in separate columns, under the appropriate head: (1) the name of the person to whom the property is assessed, if the name is not known to the assessor, the property shall be assessed to "unknown owners"; (2) land by township, range, section or fractional section, and when such land is not congressional division or subdivision, by metes and bounds, or other description sufficient to identify it, giving an estimate of the number of acres and locality; (3) city and town lots, naming the city or town and the number and block, according to the system of numbering in such city or town; (4) the cash value of real estate, other than city or town lots; (5) the cash value of city and town lots; (6) the total value of all property assessed; (7) the total value of all property after equalization by the board of directors; (8) such other things as the board of directors may require. Improvements on any lands or town lots within such districts shall be exempt from taxation for any of the purposes mentioned in this act. Any property which may have escaped the payment of any assessment for any year, shall, in addition to the assessment for the then current year, be assessed for such year with the same effect and with the same penalties as are provided for in such current year. The term improvements as used in this section includes trees, vines, alfalfa and all growing crops and all buildings and structures of whatever class or description erected or being erected upon said lands or city or town lots.

Sec. 17a. The board of directors must allow the secretary as many assistants, to be appointed by him, as will, in the judgment of the board, enable him to complete the assessment within the time herein prescribed. The board must fix the compensation of such assistants, which shall be paid out of the funds of the district. The compensation must not exceed five dollars per day for each assistant, for the time actually engaged, nor must any allowance be made but for work done between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in August in each year.

Sec. 17b. On or before the first Monday in August of each year, the secretary must complete his assessment book, and give notice thereof, and of the time the board of directors, acting as a board of equalization, will meet to equalize assessments, by publication in a newspaper published in each of the counties comprising the district. The time fixed for the meeting shall not be less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the first publication of the notice; and in the meantime the assessment book must remain in the office of the secretary for the inspection of all persons interested.

Sec. 17c. Upon the day specified in the notice required by the preceding section for the meeting, the board of directors, which is hereby constituted a board of equalization for that purpose, shall meet and continue in session from time to time, as long as may be necessary, not to exceed ten days, exclusive of Sundays, to hear and determine such objections to the valuation and assessment as may come before them; and the board may change the valuation as may be just. The secretary of the board shall be present during its sessions, and note all changes made in the valuation of property, and in the names of the persons whose property is assessed; and within ten days after the close of the session he shall have the total values, as finally equalized by the board, extended into columns and added.

Sec. 18. The board of directors shall then, within ten days after the close of its session as a board of equalization, levy an assessment upon the lands within the district in an amount sufficient to raise the interest due or that will become due on all outstanding bonds of the district on the first day of the next ensuing January and the first day of the next ensuing July, or that the board of directors believes will become due on either or both of said dates, on bonds authorized but not sold; also sufficient to pay the principal of all bonds of the district that have matured or that will mature before the close of the next ensuing calendar year; also sufficient to raise such amount not exceeding two per centum of the aggregate value of the lands within the district according to the latest duly equalized assessment roll thereof, as the board of directors shall determine may be needed to be raised by assessment for any of the purposes of this act.

The secretary of the board must compute and enter in a separate column of the assessment book the respective sums in dollars and cents to be paid as an assessment on the property therein enumerated.

The assessment upon land is a lien upon the property from and after the first Monday in March for any year.

SEC. 19. On or before the tenth day of October, the secretary must deliver the assessment book to the tax collector of the county in which the district is situated, and the secretary shall within twenty days publish a notice in a newspaper published in the county in which the district is situated, that said assessments are due and payable at the office of the county tax collector and will become delinquent at six o'clock p.m. on the last Monday of December next thereafter, and that unless paid prior thereto ten per cent will be added to the amount thereof, which notice shall be published once a week for two weeks. The assessments must be paid in gold and silver coin. The tax collector must mark the date of payment of any assessment in the assessment book, opposite the name of the person paying and give a receipt to such person, specifying the amount of the assessment and the amount paid, with the description of the property assessed. On the last Monday in December at six o'clock p.m. of each year, all unpaid assessments are delinquent and thereafter the collector must collect thereon, for the use of the district, an addition of ten per cent.

SEC. 20. On or before the tenth day of July of each year the tax collector of any county in which is situated any road district whereon any annual assessments, special assessments or installment of any special assessment thereof is delinquent shall prepare and publish a list of all such delinquent assessments or installments. Said list shall be prepared and published in substantially the same form as delinquent lists for county taxes. Said list shall be published for at least three successive weeks in a newspaper, published in said county, together with a notice stating that the delinquent property described in said list will be sold for the amounts specified therein in front of the courthouse of said county at a time to be specified in said notice, which shall be not more than thirty days from the date of the first publication of such notice. At the time stated in said notice, or at some other time to which said sale may have been postponed by said tax collector, the tax collector must offer said property for sale at public auction, beginning at the top of the list and offering each parcel successively until all the parcels advertised have been offered for sale. The owner or person in possession of any property advertised for sale may designate to the tax collector in writing before the sale the portion of the property which he wishes sold, if less than the whole, and if no such designation has been received, the tax collector may designate the portion to be sold. The person who will take the smallest quantity of any parcel of land, or, if an undivided interest is delinquent, the least portion of the interest, and pay the amount of the delinquent assessments and penalties, together with one dollar as costs, shall be declared the purchaser of the land or interest therein for which he made the bid. If no bid is received for a parcel advertised or for any part thereof, or if the person declared the purchaser shall fail to pay the amount required within twenty-four hours after the sale to him, the whole of the property shall be struck off to the district as the purchaser. A certificate of such sale shall be executed by the tax collector to the purchaser upon payment of the amount required, or to the district if it is the purchaser, and this certificate shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county. Any person interested in said property may redeem the same at any time within three years from the date of said sale by paying to the county tax collector the amount for which said property was sold and interest on said amount at the rate of two per cent per month from the date of said sale. If no redemption of land sold for delinquent assessments as aforesaid shall have been made within three years from the date of said sale, the purchaser, or his successor in interest, shall be entitled to a deed to said property, and the county tax collector of the county in which said land is situated shall execute such a deed upon demand of the person entitled to the same. The effect of such a deed shall be to convey said property, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, except state, county and municipal taxes, assessments or taxes levied or assessed by statutory authority, and the lien of any district assessment or installment thereof then remaining unpaid. The district as a purchaser at a sale for delinquent assessments shall be entitled to all the rights of a private purchaser. The board of directors may sell any property so sold to the district, or the interest of the district in such property by virtue of a certificate of sale, but such property or interest must be sold at public auction, after notice by publication for at least two successive weeks of the time and place of said sale, which notice shall describe the property to be offered for sale, and no such property shall be sold for less than the amount that would be required to redeem it if the district has not yet received a deed to it, or for less than the amount that would have been required to redeem it on the day before the district became entitled to a deed, together with interest on said amount at the rate of seven per cent per annum from that time if the district has been given a deed to the property. Any property held by the district under a certificate of sale may be redeemed at any time before the district has received a deed to it for the minimum sum at for which the district would be allowed to sell it if a deed had been given to the district.

SEC. 21. Whenever a road district or proposed road district includes lands situated in two or more counties, the powers, duties, and jurisdiction herein conferred or imposed upon the board of supervisors and the county treasurer, shall be exercised and performed by the board of supervisors and the county treasurer, respectively, of the county in which the greater portion of the district is situated. In such case, assessment books and assessment lists, or certified copies of so much thereof as pertain to lands of the district situated in the respective counties shall be filed with the tax collectors of said several counties; and in respect to collection of assessments, sale for delinquencies and redemption from such sales the said several tax collectors shall perform the duties and exercise the jurisdiction and powers herein imposed upon the county tax collector, in so far as pertains to lands of the district situated in their respective counties.

SEC. 22. If any assessment shall be adjudged invalid, the board of directors may appoint commissioners again to assess the proper amount upon the lands of the district that will be benefited, if said invalid assessment was prepared by commissioners, and the board may levy another assessment for the same purpose or purposes if said invalid assessment was an annual assessment levied by the board.

SEC. 23. The county treasurer of the county in which the district, or the greater portion thereof, is situated shall receive to the credit of the district and in trust for its uses and benefits all the funds thereof, and all such funds belonging to the district, or to which the district is entitled, shall, when received, except as herein otherwise provided, be paid by the person so receiving them to the said treasurer. The treasurer shall establish for the district two funds, which shall be designated as the bond fund and the general fund. Section 1. Every corporation organized under the laws of another state, territory, or of a foreign country, which is now doing intrastate business in this state or maintaining an office herein for such purpose, and which has not filed with the secretary of state prior to the day on which this act takes effect the document or documents required by this section, or which shall hereafter do such business in this state or maintain an office herein for such purpose or which shall enter this state for the purpose of doing such business herein, must file in the office of the secretary of state of the State of California a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, or of its charter, or of the statute or statutes, or legislative, or executive, or governmental act or acts creating it, in cases where it has been created by charter, or statute, or legislative, or executive, or governmental act, duly certified by the secretary of state or other officer authorized by the law of the jurisdiction under which such corporation is formed to certify such copy, and must also file a certified copy thereof, duly certified by the secretary of state of this state in the office of the county clerk of the county where its principal place of business in this state is located, and also where such corporation owns any real property. With such certified copy of its articles of incorporation, charter, or legislative, executive or governmental act creating it, such corporation shall also file with the secretary of state an affidavit sworn to by any officer of such corporation, which shall state the amount of such corporation's authorized capital stock at or within fifteen days prior to such filing. Every such corporation shall pay to the secretary of state for filing in his office such certified copy of its articles of incorporation, or of its charter, or of the statute or statutes, or legislative, or executive, or governmental act or acts creating it, a fee of seventy-five dollars; provided, that foreign corporations organized for educational, religious, scientific or charitable purposes and having no capital stock, and foreign nonprofit corporations shall pay a fee of five dollars for filing the document or documents hereinabove required. Such corporation shall also file any amendment of or change in any of the provisions of its original articles of incorporation, or charter, or of the statute or legislative, executive or governmental act or acts creating it. Every foreign corporation subject to the tax hereinafter provided shall file with the secretary of state, at the time it tenders payment of said tax and any penalty which has accrued, an affidavit sworn to by any officer showing the amount of its authorized capital stock on the first day of January of the year in which said payment is made and in the event that such authorized capital stock, as shown by such affidavit, differs from the amount of such capital stock as appears from the records of the secretary of state, then the tax hereinafter provided shall be measured by the amount of the capital stock shown in such affidavit. The license hereinafter required shall not be issued nor shall the amount so tendered be accepted until copies of any documents relating to such change in authorized capital stock, certified as required by this section, shall have been filed with the secretary of state.

Every foreign corporation shall file with the secretary of state a designation of some person residing within this state upon whom process issued by authority of law may be served as the representative, for such purpose, of such corporation. A copy of such designation certified by the secretary of state is sufficient evidence of the appointment of such representative. Every corporation subject to the provisions of this section and every such corporation hereafter becoming subject to the provisions thereof, which shall neglect or fail to file with the secretary of state as herein provided, shall be subject to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction; and it is hereby made the duty of the secretary of state and of the state board of equalization, when either may be advised that corporations are doing business in contravention of this section to report the fact to the attorney general of this state, who shall as soon as practicable institute proceedings to recover the fine provided for in this section, and the amount so recovered must be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general fund of the state and it is hereby made the duty of the district attorney of any county in which any action shall be brought under the provisions of this act, to assist the attorney general in the prosecution thereof.

In addition to the penalty herein provided every contract made by or on behalf of any such foreign corporation affecting the personal liability thereof or relating to property within the state shall be held void on its behalf and on behalf of its assigns, but shall be enforceable against it or them.

Every corporation which complies with the provisions of this section is thereafter entitled to the benefit of the laws of this state limiting the time for the commencement of civil actions, but any corporation created by or under the laws of any foreign state or country and that has not complied with this section is not entitled to the benefit thereof, nor can any such foreign corporation maintain or defend any action or proceeding concerning its property in this state or any intrastate business or transaction, in any court of this state. In any action or proceeding instituted against any body styled as a corporation, but not created by nor under the laws of this state, evidence that such body has acted as a corporation, or employed methods usually employed by corporations, must be received by the court for the purpose of proving the existence of such corporation, the sufficiency of such evidence to be determined by the court with like effect as in other cases. Every corporation which has complied with the law requiring it to make and file a designation of the person upon whom process against it may be served, need not make or file any further designation. Any designation made may be revoked by the filing by the corporation with the secretary of state of a writing stating such revocation. Within forty days after the death or removal from the state of any person designated by the corporation, or after the revocation of the designation, the corporation must make a new designation, or be subject to the provisions and penalties of this section; provided, however, that any foreign corporation which, prior to the eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred one, shall have complied with the provisions of the act entitled "An act to amend 'An act in relation to foreign corporations,' approved April 1, 1872," approved March 17, 1899, shall, in lieu of the provisions of this section above set forth, file the affidavit and designation of representative herein required and the license tax due from such corporation shall be measured by the authorized capital stock, as shown thereby.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, after the word "amend" insert the following: "section seven of, and to add a new section to be numbered two a to".

Amendment adopted.

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, after the period add the following:

"A new section is hereby added to an act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, as amended, to be numbered two a and to read as follows:

Sec. 2*a*. Whenever any of the work contemplated in this act is proposed to be done upon any street, road or highway forming the boundary line between adjoining cities, whether owned entirely by one of such cities or in part by one city and in part by the other or whenever such work connects directly with the same kind of work in an adjoining city all of such proposed work may be done by one of such cities with the consent of the other expressed either by ordinance or resolution of the governing body of such city; and for the purpose of issuing bonds, levying assessments for the payment of such work and for all other proceedings provided for in this act the property of the adjoining city abutting on such street or road or to be included in the district to be assessed for such work shall be considered the same as though such property were within the limits of the said city levying such assessment, issuing such bonds or by which such proceedings are taken.

Sec. 2. Section seven of said act approved March 18, 1885, as amended is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 7. Subdivision one. The expenses incurred for any work authorized by this act which (expense shall not include the cost of any work done in such portion of any street as is required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon, nor include work which shall have been declared in the resolution of intention to be assessed on a district benefited) shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, except as herein specifically provided; each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed, in proportion to the frontage, at a rate per front foot sufficient to cover the total expense of the work.

Subdivision two. The expense of the work done on main street crossings shall be assessed at a uniform rate per front foot of the quarter blocks and irregular blocks adjoining and cornering upon the crossings, and separately upon the whole of each lot or portion of a lot having any frontage in the said blocks fronting on said main streets, half way to the next main street crossing, and all the way on said blocks to a boundary line of the city where no such crossing intervenes, but only according to its frontage in said quarter blocks and irregular blocks.

Subdivision three. Where a main street terminates in another main street, the expenses of the work done on one-half of the width of the street opposite the termination shall be assessed upon the lots in each of the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering on the same according to the frontage of such lots on said main streets, and the expense of the other half of the width of said street upon the lot or lots fronting on the latter half of the street at such termination.

Subdivision four. Where any alley or subdivision street crosses a main street, the expense of all work done on said crossing shall be assessed on all lots or portions of lots half way on said alley or subdivision street to the next crossing or intersection, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

Subdivision five. The expense of work done on alley or subdivision street crossings shall be assessed upon the lots fronting upon such alley or subdivision streets on each side thereof, in all directions, half way to the next street, place or court, on either side, respectively, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

Subdivision six. Where a subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court terminates in another street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court, the expense of the work done on one-half of the width of the subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court opposite the termination, shall be assessed upon the lot or lots fronting on such subdivision, street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court so terminating, according to its frontage thereon, half way, on each side, respectively, to the next street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court or to the end of such street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court, if it does not meet another, and the other one-half of the width upon the lots fronting such termination.

Subdivision seven. Where any work mentioned in this act (manholes, sewers, cesspools, culverts, crosswalks, piling and capping excepted) is done on one side of the center line of any street or sewerage or resewering is ordered to be done under the sidewalk on only one side of any street for any length thereof, the assessment for the expenses thereof shall be made only upon the lots and lands fronting nearest upon that side of the street and for intervening intersections only upon the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering upon that side.

Subdivision eight. Whenever any lot, piece or parcel of land belonging to the State of California, or any lot, piece or parcel of land belonging to any county, city, public agent, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reform institution, or institution for the feeble-minded, or the insane, fronts upon the proposed work or improvement, or is included within the district declared by the city council in the resolution of intention to be the district to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, the city council may, in its discretion, in the resolution of intention, declare that said lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned, or any of them, shall be omitted from the assessment to be made to cover the costs and expenses of said work or improvement. In the event that said lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, shall by said resolution be omitted from the assessment, then the total expense of all work done shall be assessed on the remaining lots fronting on the work or improvement, or lying within the limits of the assessment district without regard to such omitted lots, pieces or parcels of land, and in the event any such lot, piece or parcel of land be not so omitted from the assessment, then any sum or sums thereafter assessed against the same shall be payable by the county or city owning the same, or by such public agent, mandatory of the government, school, board, educational, penal or reform institution, or institution for the feeble-minded, or the insane, where such agent, mandatory, board or institution, is authorized by law to possess, control and administer its own funds; and if such agent, mandatory or institution be not so authorized by law then the assessments upon such lots, pieces or parcels of land, shall be paid out of the general fund of the city, or such other fund as the council may designate; provided, however, that where any lot, piece or parcel of land belonging to the United States is included in the assessment district, the same shall be omitted from the assessment, unless the council shall declare in the ordinance of intention that such lot, piece or parcel, shall be included in the assessment, and that the amount thereafter assessed against the same shall be paid out of the general or other fund of the city.

Subdivision nine. It shall be lawful for the owner or owners of lots or lands fronting upon any street, the width and grade of which have been established by the city council, to perform, at his or their own expense (after obtaining permission from the council so to do, but before said council has passed its resolution of intention to order grading inclusive of this), any grading upon said street, to its full width, or to the center line thereof, and to its grade as then established, and thereupon to procure, at his or their own expense, a certificate from the city engineer, setting forth the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling made by him or them in said grading, and the proportions performed by each owner, and that the same is done to the established width and grade of said street, or to the center line thereof, and thereafter to file said certificate with the superintendent of streets, which certificate the superintendent shall record in a book kept for that purpose in his office, properly indexed. Whenever thereafter the city council orders the grading of said street, or any portion thereof, on which any grading certified as aforesaid has been done, the bids and contracts must express the price by the cubic yard for cutting and filling in grading; and the said owner or owners and his or their successors in interest, shall be entitled to credit, on the assessment upon his or their lots and lands fronting on said streets for the grading thereof to the amount of the cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in his or their certificate, at the prices named in the contract for said cutting and filling; or, if the grade meanwhile has been duly altered, only for so much of said certified work as would be required for grading to the altered grade; provided, however, that such owner or owners shall not be entitled to such credit as may be in excess of the assessments for grading upon the lots and lands owned by him or them, and proportionately assessed for the whole of said grading; and the superintendent of streets shall include in the assessment for the whole of said grading upon the same grade the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in any and all certificates so recorded in his office, or for the whole of said grading to the duly altered grade so much of said certified work as would be required for grading thereto, and shall enter upon corresponding credits, deducting the same as payments upon the amounts assessed against the lots and lands owned, respectively, by said certified owners and their successors in interest; provided, however, that he shall not so include any grading quantities or credit any sums in excess of the proportionate assessments for the whole of the grading which are made upon any lots and lands fronting upon said street and belonging to any such certified owners or their successors in interest. Whenever any owner or owners of any lots and lands fronting on any street shall have heretofore done, or shall hereafter do any work (except grading), on such street, in front of any block, at his or their own expense, and the city council shall have subsequently ordered any work to be done of the same class in front of the same block, said work so done at the expense of such owner or owners shall be excepted from the order ordering the work to be done; provided, that the work so done at the expense of such owner or owners, shall be upon the official grade, and in condition satisfactory to the street superintendent at the time said order is passed.

Subdivision ten. Whenever the resolution of intention declares that the cost and expenses of the work and improvement are to be assessed upon a district, the city council shall direct the city engineer to make a diagram of the property affected or benefited by the proposed work or improvement, as described in the resolution of intention, and to be assessed to pay the expenses thereof. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, the area in square feet of each of such lots, pieces or parcels of land, and the relative location of the same to the work proposed to be done, all within the limits of the assessment district; and when said diagram shall have been approved by the city council, the clerk shall, at the time of such approval, certify the fact and date thereof. Immediately thereafter the said diagram shall be delivered to the superintendent of streets of said city, who shall, after the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets or city council, on appeal, proceed to estimate upon the lands, lots or portions of lots within said assessment district, as shown by said diagram, the benefits arising from such work, and to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece, or subdivision of land, and shall thereupon assess upon and against said lands in said assessment district the total amount of the costs and expenses of such work, and in so doing shall assess said total sum upon the several pieces, parcels, lots, or portions of lots, and subdivisions of land in said assessment district benefited thereby, to wit: Upon each, respectively, in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said several lots, portions of lots, or subdivisions of land. In other respects the assessment shall be as provided in the next section.

Subdivision eleven. The terms lot, lots, lands, piece or parcel of land wherever mentioned in this act shall be deemed to include and shall include property owned or controlled by any person, firm or corporation as a railroad, street or interurban railroad, right of way; and wherever a railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way shall front or abut on any street improved under the provisions of this act or shall be included within any district to be assessed for the cost of any improvement provided in this act, such railroad right of way (whether the same is owned in fee or as an easement) shall be included in the warrant, assessments, and diagram and shall be assessed in the same manner and with the same effect as other lots, lands or pieces or parcels of land are assessed as provided in this act and such railroad right of way shall be subject to sale for nonpayment of assessments as in this act provided.

Subdivision twelve. Whenever any railroad track or tracks of any description exist upon the street or streets upon which the city council of any city has ordered an improvement to be made, and has excepted therefrom the portions used by the track, between the rails and for two feet on each side thereof, and between the tracks if there be more than one, the said order, unless said city council shall by resolution theretofore passed have declared the contrary, shall be deemed to be and constitute a requirement that the person or company having said railroad track or tracks thereon shall improve the said portion with improvements similar in all respects to, with the same materials, under the same specifications and superintendence, and to the like satisfaction as those ordered to be performed by said order ordering the work, and the resolution of intention and notice of proposed improvement shall be construed and are hereby declared to be notice to said person or company of the intention to order the same. Thereupon it shall be the duty of said person or company having such track or tracks on such street or streets to notify in writing the superintendent of streets if such person or company elects to perform such work at its own charge and expense and under its own direction; said notice must be delivered to the superintendent of streets within ten days after the first publication of notice or award of contract. The omission or neglect to make such election shall be construed as constituting the superintendent of streets the agent of the owner of said track or tracks, with authority to enter into a contract made in accordance with the provisions of this section for making the said improvements. Said superintendent of streets shall advertise for bids for the improvement of said portions of street or streets lying between the rails and for two feet on each side thereof, and between the tracks, if there be more than one. It shall be the duty of said city council to award the contract for the making of said improvements to the lowest regular responsible bidder. Such bidding and awarding of contracts shall be made in the same manner hereinbefore provided for the awarding of contracts for improvements, excepting that no notice of award shall be published. Immediately upon the award, the superintendent of streets shall enter into a contract with the person to whom said contract was awarded for the making of said improvement or improvements upon the portions of the street or streets described in said notice inviting bids, and at the price stated in said bid. The contractor shall execute bonds in the manner required for the execution of contracts for improvements. Upon the completion of the work and its acceptance, the street superintendent shall make a certificate of such completion together with a statement of the amount due under the terms of said contract for the performance of said work. Such certificate shall be countersigned by the mayor of said city, and shall be recorded in the office of said superintendent of streets. The contractor shall thereupon be entitled to payment of the full amount of said contract price, and the recording of such certificate shall be sufficient notice to the owner of such track or tracks that said contract price is due and payable. In the event that such amount is not paid within thirty days from the date of the recording of said certificate the contractor may file a sworn statement to that effect with the superintendent of streets, who shall record the same in his office in the book in which the certificate of acceptance has been recorded. Said contractor shall thereupon have a cause of action against said person or company owning said track or tracks for the amount of said contract, together with a reasonable attorney's fee, and shall also have as security for the recovery of such amount, a first lien upon the track and franchises of said person or company, between whose rails or tracks the said work has been performed, contained within the corporate limits of said city. In such suit, the certificate of the superintendent of streets, hereinbefore mentioned, shall be and constitute prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings, and of the right of the contractor to recover judgment against said person or company. Execution may be taken out upon the entry of judgment, and levied upon any property of said person or company subject to execution. In the event that said person or company shall file the written election to perform such work at its own cost and expense and under its own direction, no further proceedings shall be taken in the matter unless such person or company neglects or fails for thirty days, or for such further time as the city council may grant, to make said improvement. In the event that the improvement of the portions of the street or streets above described, between the rails for two feet on each side thereof, and between the tracks if there be more than one, shall not be made with diligence, or in all respects similar to the improvement of the rest of the street, or with the same materials or under the same specifications, and to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets, the city council of said city may, by resolution entered in its minutes, prescribe such terms and conditions as to it may seem fit and proper before permitting the said person or company to continue with the said improvement. If the said person or company shall, after three days' notice of the adoption of said resolution, fail to comply with the terms and conditions so prescribed, the said city council may declare said person or company to have forfeited its privilege of performing such work under its own direction. Whereupon the street superintendent shall advertise for bids for the performance of such work, or such portions thereof as may remain uncompleted, and the contract therefor shall be awarded and entered into in the same manner hereinbefore provided for the awarding and execution of contracts where said person or company has not elected to make the improvement under its own direction; and upon the completion of the improvement, the contractor to whom such contract may be awarded, or his assigns, shall be entitled to a certificate from the street superintendent similar to that heretofore provided for, and shall have the right to collect from said person or company by suit the amount specified in such certificate in all respects the same as is heretofore provided where the contract is let for such improvement in the first instance.

Subdivision thirteen. The said council may include in one resolution of intention and order any of the different kinds of work mentioned in this act, and may include any number of streets and rights of way or portion thereof in one proceeding and one contract, and it may except therefrom any of said work already done upon the street to the official grade. The lots and portions of lots fronting upon said accepted work already done shall not be included in the frontage assessment for the class of work from which the exception is made; provided, that this shall not be construed so as to affect the special provisions as to grading contained in this act."

Amendment adopted.

Bill read second time, and ordered to print, engrossment, and on file for third reading.

WHEREAS, During the first week in July, there will be celebrated in the city of Sonoma, State of California, the hundredth anniversary of the founding on July 4, 1823, of the Mission San Francisco Del Solano, which is to be an event of great and historical importance promising to attract to Sonoma many thousands of people and which is to be made an occasion of the reproduction of California history, including the founding of the mission and the raising of the Bear Flag of the California Republic, in pageantry of impressive interest; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Senate of the State of California, assembled in Sacramento, this tenth day of May, 1923, that we offer our sincere congratulations to the people of Sonoma and compliment them on their effort to make the mission centennial an event in accord with the significance of its historical import.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

SACRAMENTO, May 11, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California:

Senate Bill No. 480 is returned herewith without my approval.

This bill, if enacted into law, would enable the stenographic reporters of the superior court of Stanislaus County to monopolize the stenographic work of the justices' courts of the county in all proceedings in felony and high misdemeanor cases, and in all other cases where the services of a reporter are required. For their services in reporting such proceedings they would receive the same fees as are provided by law for like services in the superior court.

Irrespective of any question as to the propriety of such legislation, it is apparent that this proposed amendment is unconstitutional. Section 5 of article XI of the constitution provides for the classification of counties by population for the sole purpose of fixing the compensation of county officers. See Summerland vs. Bicknell, 111 Cal. 567; and Sanchez vs. Forduce, 141 Cal. 429.

A stenographic reporter of the superior court is not a county officer. See Stevens vs. Truman, 127 Cal. 159. Therefore the classification of counties by population cannot be availed of for the purpose of regulating the duties of compensation of superior court reporters. See Pratt vs. Browne, 135 Cal. 649.

The above mentioned case is also authority for the proposition that this act is invalid for the reason that its subject matter is not expressed in the title to the County Government Act, and the subject is not germane to the uniform system of county government for which that act provides.

Respectfully submitted,

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

Ordered to unfinished business file.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 26.

Relative to the creation of the "Legislative Tax Committee of 1923," for the purpose of making an investigation and report on the systems of revenue and taxation in this State and of the methods in use in other states.

WHEREAS, The rapid increase in the State's expenditures, the growth of its institutions and the ever increasing demand for the extension of its governmental functions and activities, together with the problem of the equitable distribution of the burden of taxation, require a careful study and thorough investigation of the State's system of revenue and taxation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That there shall be, and there is hereby created a committee to be known as the "Legislative Tax Committee of 1923," to be composed of two members of the Senate to be appointed by the President of the Senate and two members of the Assembly to be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. Said committee shall make an investigation of all sources of actual and potential revenues of the State, cities and counties, municipal governments and political subdivisions and shall also investigate the present systems of taxation by states and political subdivisions thereof, and shall, if in its judgment a change should be made in the existing method or methods of taxation in this State, cause to be prepared such constitutional amendment or amendments as may be required to carry its recommendations into effect and such enabling acts as may be required; and be it further

Whenever the resolution of intention declares that the cost and expenses of the work and improvement are to be assessed upon a district, the city engineer shall make a diagram of the property affected or benefited by the proposed work or improvement, as described in resolution of intention, and to be assessed to pay the expenses thereof. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, the area in square feet of each of such lots, pieces or parcels of land, and the relative location of the same to the work proposed to be done, all within the limits of the assessment district, and when said diagram shall have been approved by the city council, the clerk shall certify the fact and date thereof. Immediately thereafter the said diagram shall be delivered to the superintendent of streets of said city, who shall, after the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets or city council on appeal, proceed to estimate upon the lands, lots or portions of lots within said assessment district, as shown by said diagram, the benefits arising from such work, and to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece or subdivision of land, and shall thereupon assess upon and against said lands in said assessment district the total amount of the costs and expenses of such work, and in so doing shall assess said total sum upon the several pieces, parcels, lots or portions of lots, and subdivisions of land in said assessment district benefited thereby, to wit: upon each respectively, in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said several lots, portions of lots, or subdivisions of land. In other respects the assessment shall be as provided in the next section, and the provisions of subdivisions one, two, three, four, five, six and seven of this section shall not be applicable to the work or improvement provided for in this subdivision.

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

On page 1 of the printed bill, after line 21, add the following:

"SEC. 2. Section two of said act approved April 20, 1915, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Whenever a petition signed by not less than ten per cent of the qualified electors residing in the territory which is proposed to be formed into a municipal improvement district, setting forth a general description of the improvement, work or public utility to be acquired or constructed and a general description of the exterior boundaries of such proposed district, shall have been filed in the office of the clerk of the legislative body of said city, said legislative body may adopt an ordinance declaring its intention to call an election in said proposed district, or as the same may have been modified as herein provided, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of said district the proposition of authorizing the issuance and sale of bonds of such district in the manner and for the purpose set forth in said ordinance of intention. Said legislative body shall have power to change or modify the boundaries of said district and the nature, character or extent of such proposed public improvement, work or public utility. Said ordinance of intention shall also contain:

1. An accurate description of the exterior boundaries of the proposed municipal improvement district;

2. A general description of the improvement, work or public utility proposed to be acquired or constructed;

3. An estimate of the cost of the proposed improvement, work or public utility and of the incidental expense in connection therewith;

4. That upon a certain date fixed therein an election will be held in said district for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters thereof the proposition of incurring indebtedness by the issuance of bonds of such district to pay the cost and expenses of the proposed improvement, work or public utility, and that a map showing the exterior boundaries of said district with relation to the territory immediately contiguous thereto, and a general description of the proposed improvement are on file in the office of the clerk of the legislative body of such city; which said map shall govern for all details as to the extent of the said district.

5. A date, hour and place fixed for the hearing of protests."

Amendment adopted.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

"Sec. 4. Section four of said act approved April 20, 1915, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. Any person interested, objecting to the formation of said district, or to the extent of said district, or to the proposed improvement, or work, or to the acquiring or construction of the proposed public utility, or to the inclusion of his property in said district, may file a written protest, setting forth such objection, with the clerk of the legislative body at or before the time set for the hearing of said petition. The clerk of said legislative body shall indorse on each such protest the date of its reception by him, and, at the time appointed for the hearing above provided for, shall present to said board all protests so filed with him. Said legislative body shall hear said protests at the time appointed or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and pass upon the same, and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. If any of such protests against the proposed improvement or work, or against the acquisition or construction of the public utility be sustained, no further proceedings shall be had or taken pursuant to the petition, but a new petition for the same or a similar purpose may be filed at any time after the expiration of six months from the date such protest was sustained. If any of such protests be against the extent of said district, or against the inclusion of property in said district, then the legislative body shall have power to make such changes in the boundaries of the proposed district as it shall find to be proper and advisable, and shall define and establish such boundaries, but said legislative body shall not modify such boundaries so as to include any territory which will not in its judgment, be benefited by said improvement, work or public utility.

Said legislative body shall not modify such boundaries except after notice of its intention so to do, given by one insertion in said newspaper, describing the proposed modification, and specifying a time for hearing objections to such modification, which time shall be at least ten days after the publication of said notice. Written objections to said proposed modification may be filed with the clerk of said legislative body by any interested person at or before the time set for hearing the same. Said legislative body shall hear and pass upon such objections at the time appointed, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. If such objections, or any of them, be sustained, no further proceedings pursuant to such objection shall be taken, but a new petition for the same or a similar purpose may be filed at any time after the expiration of six months from the date such protest was sustained.

At the expiration of the time within which protests may be filed, if none be filed, or if protests be filed and after hearing be denied, or at the expiration of the time within which objections to the modification of the boundaries of the district, in case such modification be proposed, may be filed, if none be filed, or if such objections be filed, and, after hearing, be overruled, as above provided, then said legislative body shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to proceed further in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Amendment adopted.

AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR.

"Sec. 5. Section five of said act approved April 20, 1915, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

At any time after said legislative body shall have so acquired jurisdiction, it may call an election to be held within the district described in said ordinance, and provide for the submission to the qualified voters thereof, the proposition of incurring a debt by the issuance of bonds of such district, for the purposes set forth in said ordinance. The ordinance or resolution calling such election, shall also recite the objects and purposes for which the proposed indebtedness is to be incurred, the nature of the improvement, work or public utility, contemplated thereby, the estimated cost thereof, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor and the rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness; and shall fix the date on which such election shall be held, the manner of holding the same and the manner of voting for or against said proposition. The maximum rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness shall be six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually." "In the ordinance or resolution calling such election and in the proposition printed on the ballots to be used at such election, it shall not be necessary to specify separately the incidental expense in connection with the proposed improvement, work or public utility, but the amount of such incidental expense may be considered and treated as a part of the estimated cost of such improvement, work or public utility."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, May 11, 1923.

To the Senate of the State of California.

Senate Bill No. 335 is returned herewith without my approval.

This bill adds a new section to the Civil Code, prohibiting minors aged fifteen years or over from disaffirming after reaching majority, contracts for life insurance, where the minor has been insured, or where the insurance is for his benefit or the benefit of any of his kindred. While on principle there is no objection to minors carrying life insurance, this bill is so loosely drawn that it is certain to lead to confusion, injustice and abuse. Children of fifteen or sixteen years, even though engaged in industrial pursuits, are hardly qualified to execute life insurance contracts, and to turn them over to the tender ministrations of agents intent only on earning a commission, will not, in my opinion, subserve their best interests. If this bill prohibited the disaffirmance of life insurance contracts entered into by minors with the advice and consent of their parents, guardians or nearest relatives of matured years, I would readily assent to it, since in most cases it would work to their advantage. But to abrogate the rule in this class of contracts which saves children from the cupidity of their elders or their own folly, without granting them any protection whatever, it seems to me, is not in consonance with sound public policy.

Respectfully submitted.

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON, Governor.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

The following report of Special Committee was received and read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

To the President and Members of the Senate.

The following is submitted as the report of your Special Committee appointed to investigate the receipts and expenditures of persons, committees, firms, associations, clubs and groups of persons who received and expended sums of money in excess of $1,000 to secure the passage or defeat of measures appearing on the ballot at the general election held November 7th, 1922, and to investigate the reasons for the failure by some to file statements of receipts and expenditures with the Secretary of State as required by chapter DLXXXIII, statutes of 1921, providing for publicity of contributions and expenditures made for the purpose of influencing electors for or against any proposition voted upon throughout the State, and to report to the Senate, upon the completion of such investigation, the conclusions and recommendations of the committee.

Immediately after its appointment the committee met and organized with Senator Herbert C. Jones as Chairman and Senator Walter Eden as Vice Chairman. The committee secured the services of William Kehoe as special counsel, which he has rendered without charge. Joseph E. Pipher and E. E. Vinson were appointed by the committee and sworn as stenographic reporters. Hearings were begun at once and witnesses were subpoenaed and brought from various parts of the State to testify before the committee. Seven sessions were held in Sacramento during the first portion of the legislative session, five were held in San Francisco during the recess, and two have been held in Sacramento since the Legislature reconvened.

At the outset, and for the purpose of covering as much ground as possible with the time and money available, the measures on the ballot at the last November election were divided into three groups:

(1) Measures submitted by the Legislature, of which there were seventeen (including the Veterans' Validating Act, which though an initiative measure, may properly be considered with the Veterans' Welfare Bond Act, submitted by the Legislature).

(2) Initiative measures, of which there were ten.

(3) Referendum measures, of which there were three.

As no particular contest developed in the election over the seventeen legislative matters, your committee contented itself with writing to the authors of the official arguments in the pamphlet for and against these seventeen measures to ascertain whether or not they had any knowledge of contributions or expenditures, exceeding $1,000, either for or against any of these respective propositions. Their replies disclosed that in no instance, so far as such authors were aware (excepting Veterans' measures, for which a statement was filed with the Secretary of State), did such contributions or expenditures equal the sum of $1,000.

With that information at hand, the committee eliminated from further consideration the seventeen legislative matters and confined its investigations to contributions and expenditures made for and against the initiative and referendum measures. Even with the scope of its investigation thus limited, the committee still had neither the time nor the funds necessary to investigate, as exhaustively as it should have liked, all the expenditures on these initiative and referendum measures. It did, however, uncover sufficient information relating to amounts expended and campaign methods employed to furnish material for serious thought on the part of the citizens of California and of the Legislature.

Epitomized, our investigation disclosed two outstanding features:

- (1) Startlingly large expenditures in campaigns on such measures.
- (2) Campaign methods and practices that constitute a menace to our electoral system.

In addition to the foregoing important disclosures our investigations also brought out certain other features:

- (1) Universal approval of the soundness and wisdom of the policy of the legislation requiring publicity of campaign contributions and expenditures.
- (2) A great lack of knowledge of the law prior to the date for filing the pre-election statement, but a general willingness and desire to comply with the law, so far as possible, after its requirements became known.
- (3) Necessity for amendments to the law to make it more comprehensive, as well as more definite and certain.

STARTLINGLY LARGE EXPENDITURES.

While testimony was received as to expenditures on each of the initiative and referendum measures on the ballot (thirteen in all), the committee sought to make as comprehensive as possible, in the time at its disposal, the investigation of expenditures on the measures which it felt the public would, by general acceptance, agree upon as those having involved the greatest contest, being seven in number. The amounts given below as expenditures are only an approximation, for reasons which will be later explained. These seven measures and the expenditures thereon are as follows:

Act	Expenditures	Total
Water and Power Act-----	For $159,990.05
	Against 501,605.68	$661,595.73
Regulating Practice of Law-----	For 50,618.89
	Against 66,971.41	117,590.30
Prohibition Enforcement Act----	For 79,497.22
	Against 22,173.24	101,670.46
Chiropractic Act-----	For 64,214.31
	Against 2,669.81	66,884.12
Land Franchise Tax Act-----	For 9,555.48
	Against 48,244.50	57,799.98
Osteopathic Act-----	For 40,481.00
	Against 2,669.81	43,150.81
Housing Act-----	For 13,511.45
	Against 19,581.28	33,092.73
Total -----		$1,081,784.13

It is a very significant fact, and one which the people of the State can not too quickly nor too seriously realize, that in the case of each of the foregoing seven most strenuously contested propositions, that side won which spent the most money. Napoleon, in his famous, though sacrilegious statement, claimed that "God is on the side of the strongest battalions." The committee might similarly say, as the result of its investigation, "Victory is on the side of the biggest purse." The winning of the election by the side that spent the most money in the foregoing contests was too universal to be attributed merely to chance or accident. The power of money in influencing public opinion, its ability to carry popular elections through vast expenditures for propaganda, literature, advertising and organized campaign workers was made strikingly manifest in the investigations of your committee. It presents a problem in direct legislation which the citizens of this State cannot safely ignore.

In addition to the foregoing seven strongly contested initiative and referendum measures, there remain six other initiative measures upon which the expenditures were as follows:

Act	Expenditures	Total
State Budget-----	For $6,548.08
	Against -----	$6,548.08
Initiative (requiring increased signatures) -----	For †
	Against 10,232.36	10,232.36
Prohibiting Vivisection-----	For *
	Against 5,169.24	5,169.24
Indeterminate Franchise-----	For -----	-----
	Against -----	-----
Taxation of Publicly Owned Public Utilities -----	For -----	-----
	Against -----	-----
Regulation of Publicly Owned Public Utilities -----	For -----	-----
	Against -----	-----
Total -----		$21,949.68

†Included in expenditures against single tax.

*No investigation—inability to get witnesses.

The last two propositions appear to have been placed upon the ballot by the San Joaquin Valley Association of Commercial Secretaries, but not even an approximate allocation out of the salaries and expenses of the secretaries of these respective organizations could be arrived at for the purpose of determining what the expenditures were in placing these measures on the ballot and conducting the campaigns for them.

By adding together the expenditures for the six initiative measures last above set forth and the expenditures for the seven measures earlier mentioned, there appears a grand total of $1,103,733.81 expended in the campaigns in connection with the thirteen initiative and referendum measures.

It must not be assumed, however, that this grand total of $1,103,733.81 truly represents the total expenditures, on account of the foregoing measure. In two chief particulars the committee found that it was impossible to ascertain the total expenditures in connection with propositions on the ballot.

One of these difficulties arises by reason of the expenditures of sums less than $1,000 by individuals or local organizations not subsidiary to or a part of a central organization. The aggregate of these local expenditures may have amounted to substantial sums. For example, it appeared from the testimony that the figures given in this report in connection with the expenditures on the measure regulating the practice of law are not in fact the total expenditures on either side. Many county bar associations expended sums of less than $1,000 in support of the measure that were not accounted for in the above figure, and were not required to be accounted for under the act of 1921, while individual banks and trust companies likewise expended sums in opposition to the measure that were not included in the above figure. So in the campaign for and against the Prohibition Enforcement Act, the Chiropractic Act, Osteopathic Act, and the Land Franchise Act (single tax), many expenditures were made that were not required to be reported under the provisions of chapter DLXXXIII, but which would have increased materially the campaign expenditures for and against those measures.

A second difficulty in ascertaining the total expenditures for or against measures on the ballot arises from the inability to determine to what extent general advertising was used indirectly for political purposes, and if so, the further inability to determine what portion of the cost of such general advertising should be charged to campaign expenditures.

To illustrate: The campaign against the Water and Power Act was financed almost entirely by a half dozen public utility companies engaged in generating and selling electrical energy. These utilities normally are large advertisers. In order to ascertain whether this general advertising had been utilized as a means of campaign advertising, the committee requested from one of these companies, namely, the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, a statement of its advertising for each month during the year of the election (1922) and during the preceding year (1921). It reported that its advertising was carried under two classifications:

- (1) Financial advertising, relating only to sale of its stocks and bonds.
- (2) Advertising other than financial.

Your committee was furnished with a statement for the second class of advertising for the years of 1921 and 1922, the statement being as follows:

1921		1922
January	-----$ 8,395.94	January	-----$ 3,000.78
February	----- 7,548.73	February	----- 6,259.04
March	----- 6,119.02	March	----- 8,454.07
April	----- 6,298.73	April	----- 7,685.41
May	----- 7,996.08	May	----- 8,227.83
June	----- 5,765.39	June	----- 10,304.05
July	----- 5,328.34	July	----- 6,480.48
August	----- 7,778.26	August	----- 7,578.60
September	----- 5,531.90	September	----- 21,887.93
October	----- 8,107.42	October	----- 15,399.85
November	----- 7,377.09	November	----- 11,843.80
December	----- 6,885.92	December	----- 10,184.63
<hr/>		<hr/>
$83,132.82		$117,306.47

An analysis of the foregoing advertising account shows that the expenditures for the year 1922 were $34,173.65 in excess of those for 1921; that the expenditures for the last four months of 1922 (when campaign bills would be coming in) was $31,415.87 in excess of those for the last four months of 1921; that the expenditures for the last four months of 1922 were greater than those for the first eight months of 1922, whereas during the year 1921 the expenditures for the last four months were in exact proportion to the first eight months. The company denied, however, that there was any connection between the unusual increase of advertising during the months of 1922 when the campaign was most active, and stated that the increase for the year 1922 had no connection with the campaign against the Water and Power Act.

Because of this statement of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the other utilities that their increased expenditures for general advertising during the year 1922 had no connection with the Water and Power Act campaign, your committee has not allocated or included any of the increase for general advertising by the utilities during the campaign months in the sum of $501,605.68, and did not demand similar information from the other public utilities that were active in the campaign against the Water and Power Act.

Whether this increased advertising at the particular time that it was done, could indirectly have such a bearing upon the attitude of the press and the shaping of public opinion during the campaign as to justify the charging or allocating of such increase to campaign expenditures is a question which your committee will have to leave for the Senate and the public to judge.

As a general conclusion, it may be stated that the evidence placed before your committee shows that sums were expended in connection with the campaign on initiative and referendum measures far in excess of any popular conception. Your committee doubts whether even members of the Legislature, to say nothing of the general public, had any idea, before the investigation, of the amount of money used in conducting state-wide campaigns on initiative and referendum measures that provoke any considerable contest. Now that the facts have been brought to public attention every effort should be made both to insist on full publicity of campaign expenditures, and also to devise ways whereby the issues involved in such contests can be presented at less cost than under present conditions.

DECEPTIVE CAMPAIGN METHODS.

It has been previously stated that the two outstanding features of the committee's investigation were:

- (1) The discovery of startlingly large expenditures, and
- (2) The use of questionable, misleading and deceptive campaign methods.

The matter of the large expenditures has been heretofore covered. In reference to the methods employed in connection with the campaigns on some of the propositions on the ballot, the committee found they were such as to have the effect of misleading and deceiving the voter. This arises, for example, out of the use of high sounding, patriotic names under which the real identity of the interested parties and actual proponents or opponents is disguised. While many campaign committees selected names that fairly indicated their purpose, others selected designations which gave the voter no indication as to the real purpose or nature of the organization. The most conspicuous example of the latter was the use of the name "Greater California League" by the opponents of the Water and Power Act. Such a name readily gives the impression of being a promotion organization which every citizen in California would feel free to join, and having nothing in its name to indicate that it was a political campaign organization.

The testimony before the committee showed that the Greater California League was in reality merely the name under which Eustace Cullinan, employed by the power companies, conducted the campaign against the Water and Power Act in Northern California.

The following extracts from Mr. Cullinan's testimony indicate its actual identity:

"The Greater California League never had control of the money (campaign contributions) at all. I put that money in the bank as I received it to an account called "The Greater California League", but no one had access to that account except me. * * * It was like most of these political groups or committees * * * never had a meeting. * * * I appointed myself president. I was employed by the power companies, through John S. Drum * * * and met, with myself, after the employment, and organized the Greater California League."

Another practice, shown by the testimony to have been extensively resorted to in the campaign and calculated to work deception on the voter, was that of employing as campaign workers, persons prominent in commercial bodies, farm organizations, labor unions, social, literary and civic clubs, without these hired representatives disclosing their employment. In this way members of organizations were kept in the dark as to the real motive of fellow members who were apparently disinterested in their views.

In the selection of campaign workers from the ranks of organizations, frequently members of the greatest prominence were selected, so as to leave no doubt in the minds of the committee that these representatives were being hired, not for the services that they might render, but for the influence that they possessed by reason of their standing and reputation as disinterested members commanding the confidence of their fellows and actuated only by considerations of the welfare of their organizations. These workers were frequently furnished with expense accounts which might properly be designated as "influence money." In several instances no room for doubt is left but that the employment of members of organizations was for the purpose of securing the endorsement and influence of the entire organizations.

To such lengths was this practice carried that in at least two instances those who held salaried positions obligating them to work for measures on the ballot that their organizations had sponsored, accepted employment from opposing interests to work against the very measures that they had been employed to further.

Popular government and direct legislation have no greater menace than that in which propaganda on electoral matters is disseminated by paid workers in lodge, church, club, farm bureau, union or other organizations under the guise of honest and disinterested advice.

That such methods and such expenditures are contrary not only to good government but to public opinion is apparent from the results that take place when the public become aware of the truth.

CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS.

Your committee in spite of the fact that its investigations show the expenditure of vast amounts of money in connection with the propositions on the ballot last fall—expenditures aggregating on the initiative and referendum measures considerably over $1,000,000—is not yet constrained to advise the placing of a limit as to the amount of expenditure, at least not until some means is devised whereby both sides of important issues can be adequately and equally presented to the public at less cost. The thing that must be sacredly guarded, however, and unequivocally insisted upon is publicity. We feel that the voters of California can be safely relied upon to draw their own conclusions if they are enabled to know the amounts and sources of campaign contributions and expenditures. The danger is not in the amount that may be spent, but withholding from the voters the knowledge that it is being spent and by whom and through what channels. The voter can be depended on to properly discount propaganda and to appraise, at its real value, hired opinion if he can only know that it is hired and have the means of distinguishing the disinterested civic worker, lodge member or club leader from the one under political employment. Publicity is the great cleansing force in American politics—pitiless publicity. To insure full and complete publicity in expenditures of all who seek to influence direct legislation should be the policy and purpose of the law of California.

The suggestion has been repeatedly presented to the committee that public utility companies should be prohibited from contributing out of their corporation funds toward any election purposes. Ultimately and in the last analysis, the rate payers, who have no alternative other than to use the service of these utilities, must pay the bill for any campaign contributions made by the utilities unless such contributions be paid out of non-operating revenue. It is therefore one of the recommendations of your committee that the Railroad Commission scrupulously and rigorously exclude all campaign contributions from the charges or expenses on which rates are fixed, so that the public may not be compelled to pay these campaign contributions.

DEFECTS IN EXISTING STATUTE.

Certain weaknesses and defects in the present statute were made manifest in the hearings of the committee. The most important of these weaknesses may be enumerated as follows:

(1) Doubt as to whether the present statute applies to expenditures by an individual or corporation expending its own funds (as distinguished from contributed funds).

(2) Doubt as to whether the present statute includes among election expenses the cost of circulating initiative and referendum petitions.

(3) Need for the filing of an additional and earlier statement in order that better publicity may be secured.

(4) The requiring the filing of the statement immediately prior to election at least seven days instead of five days before election, and extending the time for filing the statement after election to thirty days. The change in the time for the filing of the statement immediately prior to election is recommended for the purpose of getting better publicity, and the extending of time for filing the statement after election is to allow adequate time for all bills to be presented after the close of the campaign.

(5) The imposition of a jail sentence in view of the fact that many campaign committees might willingly pay the fine rather than make public the sources of their contributions and the channels of expenditure.

(6) The filing of statements in triplicate with the Secretary of State in order to enable the Secretary of State without delay to send copies of the statements to the county clerks at Los Angeles and San Francisco as required by the statute.

A copy of the testimony taken before the committee accompanies this report and is filed herewith with the Secretary of the Senate. The items and vouchers for the expense of this investigation appear in detail in the office of the State Controller.

Respectfully submitted.

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was received by Senator Johnson, A. B., and ordered printed in the Journal:

STATEMENT MADE BY JAMES MILLS OF HAMILTON CITY, IN CONNECTION WITH SENATE BILL No. 696.

Constituents (Fertilizer). The three principal constituents in a complete fertilizer are nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash.

Source—Nitrogen (Air). There are 2000 tons of nitrogen over every acre of ground and of sea on the earth's surface. This element is extracted from the air in several ways: First—Nature has provided a family of plants, a legume or pea family—which extracts this valuable plant food element from the free nitrogen source of the atmosphere. The nitrogen fixing bacteria soil, operating through the roots of this family of plants, extracts from the air and lays up in the plant for its use, the nitrogen. Second—Electrical storms, to make available some of the nitrogen of the air. Third—Extracting plants have been established in Norway, Sweden and Canada to extract nitrogen from the air in large quantities and for sale to, and use by, farmers for fertilizing purposes.

There is yet no such plant operating in the United States notwithstanding that we have abundant use for this plant food element, and have vast water power with which to extract.

The farmers have been greatly interested in the Muscle Shoals proposition and principally because Henry Ford promises to use this great source of power to extract nitrogen from the air for fertilizing purposes, and on such a large scale that it will be greatly reduced in price and therefore brought within the reach of many industries which now cannot use it.

Chile. Nitrate of soda is mined in large quantities in the Chile, South America, mines. It is controlled largely by Europeans and it is used very largely, more extensively indeed, for making gun powder than in the farming industry of the country as a fertilizer. This source will, ere long, be exhausted.

Gas Plants. The gas plants of the country supply us with a meager quantity of sulphate of ammonia which, through nitrogen fixing bacteria of the soil, is made available to plants.

Packing Plants. We get a considerable supply of blood and tankage from the packing plants of Chicago, Omaha and other packing centers of the United States, which supply gives us nitrogen in the form of ammonia and is of high grade but of meager amount. We import small quantities of blood from Argentina for fertilizer and cattle food purposes.

Fish. This is the source of nitrogen that we are seeking access to and it will be treated below.

Potash. Sulphate of potash, used extensively in this State, is one of the constituents of a complete fertilizer. It is brought exclusively from Germany and France. Those countries control the supply. A chloride of potash is being extracted from one or more of our lakes in the desert country immediately to the east of our State. Small quantities are supplied by the cement plants of the State.

Phosphoric Acid. We receive this plant food element from several sources: First, in mineral form as rock phosphate, from the South Sea Islands of the Pacific and from Florida, Tennessee, the Carolinas and Utah. This mineral substance must be treated by the sulphuric acid process to make it water soluble and therefore readily available to plant life. It reverts, however, to its original state when placed in the soil.

We also receive considerable quantities from our packing plants, the Argentine and Mexico, in the form of bone, either steamed or raw. If raw it must be reduced and made available through the sulphuric acid process. The supply, however, is very short of the demand. Sulphuric acid from bone is much superior and therefore more valuable to the farmer than from the phosphate rocks. The latter must be used in large quantities because the supply of bone is very short of the needs of the farmer.

The fish of the sea will furnish us with large quantities—sufficient quantities of this plant food element if we are allowed access to this supply.

The sea, which we are asking access to for an unlimited supply, will be treated below.

Quality. The value of a fertilizer is valued by the amount that the crop obtained and the value of the crop obtaining it. A pound of nitrogen, phosphoric acid or potash, used in making a crop of celery, asparagus or fruit, eggs, pork, beef or mutton would be more than that used in making a crop of wheat, rye or hay, and—note this—by the amount that the immediate crop is liable to obtain and the proportionate amount of the total that would eventually be gathered.

Note here, and I want to call your attention particularly to this point:

Nitrogen and phosphoric acid from fish is more readily available to plant life and more largely available to the immediate crop than the same elements from any other source, with the exception of nitrogen from Chile saltpetre and the like. The phosphoric acid from this source is much more readily available than from the mineral above mentioned, namely, the rock phosphates and is superior to bone for this source of plant food.

Freight. You will note that we have to import all of our fertilizers—or most of them—and from very distant points, the South Seas, Chile, Florida, Tennessee, Chicago, and even from Norway, Germany and France.

Increase. An increased supply of fertilizer is needed and a very much greater amount will be used by the farmers of this State, if it can be secured at a price that they will be warranted in paying. We cannot now and therefore do not use fertilizer in the growing of cereal because we cannot pay the price and for two reasons—note them—first, the cost is too great because of the freight charges from very distant points and—second—because of this arid country we get but one crop in two years, and that by summer fallowing, and even then we are not sure of our crop.

We cannot control the elements—if it does not rain we do not get the crop, though we summer fallow—if it rains too much we are drowned out. However, if we can get the fertilizer at a low enough figure we can and will use it.

Soil Fertility. We must conserve the fertility of our soil. This State, more than any other state, is engaged in intensive agricultural and horticultural farming. By our intensive cultural methods we exhaust the soil by compelling it to give forth of its richness in great abundance. If we do not return to the soil the plant food elements extracted in the growing of crops, we will soon exhaust it. The old adage may well be applied to our cultural methods: "Always taking out of the meal bag and never putting back brings us soon to the bottom."

Our soil is not like unto the widow's sack of meal and cruse of oil. If we can get a source of supply that is unlimited, or greater than that to which we now have access, the price will be lower, the quantity produced will be greater, and the amount used will be greater and our soil fertility will be conserved and increased as it must be.

Conservation. Let me call your attention particularly to this. It is vital and should be pressed in your argument. The farmers of America have been miners rather than farmers. We have had a vast domain to draw upon. The sons of the New Englander, as their home farms became more or less impoverished moved west to Illinois and Ohio. The sons of these men moved further west into the Dakotas, Minnesota, Nebraska and Iowa and the sons of these moved still further west until now we have reached the confines of the nation's holdings on the Pacific Coast.

We have no great free domain accessible to the sons of the present generation. We have got to the point where we must conserve our soil fertility. The sons of the fathers of today must stay on the land that their fathers cultivated. They must not only conserve its fertility, but increase it, if food in sufficient quantities shall be produced to feed the nation. For this purpose we must have large supplies of reasonably cheap fertilizer.

Other Nations. Other nations, principally in Europe, have been compelled long since to use large quantities of fertilizer, to conserve and increase the virgin fertility of their soil. They have done so with great benefit. They have had access to supplies which have been denied us.

FISH AS A SUPPLY OF FERTILIZER FOR CALIFORNIA FARMERS.

We are seeking through Senate Bill No. 696 access to what we claim to be an unlimited supply of the plant food elements—nitrogen and phosphoric acid—and in a condition when reduced from fish, more readily available to plant life than from any other source.

Fish meal can be had in our reduction plants all along our coast line in great abundance; in sufficient quantities to meet our immediate and increasing needs. From the fish we manufacture fish meal and oil. Fish meal is used not only for fertilizer in the soil but as food for chickens, cattle, sheep and hogs. With it we can greatly increase and will increase our production of fruit and grain crops, and eggs and meat products. It is claimed by some, and honestly so, that there is danger of exhausting the supply of sardines on our shore by taking in unlimited quantities for four months each year. I call your attention to the fact that no other nation and no State in this nation limits the catch of fish in their waters.

Two hundred million tons of herring are taken each year in European waters for food and fertilizer and oil purposes. Before the war France had eight thousand boats engaged in her herring fisheries. Thirty-two thousand fishermen were engaged in the industry and 240,000 men and women were engaged on shore preparing the catch for market. A like number still are engaged in this French industry.

England, Scotland, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Italy and Portugal take in unlimited quantities. On the Atlantic coast, in the Chesapeake Bay and in the main harbors a vast tonnage is taken from the sea. No limit is put upon the catch.

In Reedville, Virginia, a large industry has been built up; many reduction plants are constantly at work and great tonnage of fertilizer is manufactured, some of which is shipped across the continent to our western shores.

Some 90,000 tons were manufactured recently on the Atlantic Coast.

The herring family has about 200 members and is to be found in all the seas and principal rivers and bays of the world. Members of this family are found in vast quantities from Gibraltar to Iceland, on the shores of Portugal, in the bay of Biscay, in the North Sea, and using Iceland as an intermediate station for migrating the polar seas to Greenland and down by the shores of Labrador, New Foundland, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, the main coast and as far south as the Carolinas.

They are found in vast quantities all along the Pacific Coast and as far north as Alaska. They cross over to Japan, Siberia and down past the Philippines through the South Sea Islands to the shores of Australia and New Zealand. They are found all along the coast of India and the Hilsa, the same as our shad caught in vast quantities in the rivers of India. They are all along the coast of Africa. Everywhere this natural food of the very large fish of the sea is found in unlimited quantities. Nature has so provided it because it is the natural food of the denizens of the deep. We believe it is unlimited in quantity.

The herring industry was the foundation of the great sea power of Holland in the fifteenth century. It was the foundation of the wealth of the Hansaetic cities, Germany and Holland. It has been taken without limit for centuries without any apparent decrease in the numbers. It is a migratory fish. It spawns no man knoweth where—in the deep seas. Their eggs are found attached to the sea weeds and stones at the bottom of the sea. They are the natural food, I say again, of the whale, the shark, the salmon, tuna, mackerel and other fish of the sea, and as well of the myriad products that inhabit the coast of the main land and islands.

Quantity. Let me call your attention to this point because it is illuminating. There has been found in the stomach of the whale 1200 tons of herring. The whale eats twice a day and approximately one and one-quarter tons constitutes the fish food supply of the whale for one day, or approximately 400 tons per year. Three hundred whales were caught off the Bay of Monterey last year. Note the tremendous amount of food supply taken by the whale.

Whale Industry. We have built up a great industry catching whales for their oil and beef steaks; the walrus for its oil and skin. Our own main fishing fleet collected 100,000 walrus in the North Sea in one year. We are taking the shark for its oil and its hide, the hide being found superior to any other leather; the oil being used now in large quantities in the paint and other industries.

Now let me call your attention here to the fact that we are, through the destruction of these great animals of the deep, saving more herring and sardines than we are asking to take from our own coast fisheries for fertilizer and animal food.

Food. The only outstanding strong argument that is made by those opposed to this bill is that we are threatening the destruction or extinction of a great source of human food. This is our answer. Others like fish—we do not. The hundred million people in America consumes but one-third of the sardines caught and canned in our fisheries. The balance is shipped abroad.

We do consume large quantities of fruit, cereal and vegetables of all kinds. We ask to be permitted to take unlimited quantities of fish and convert them into plant food, which will produce from two to eight tons, according to the product raised, for every ton of fish meal used. We ask permission to convert fish into that class of food which this nation consumes. We will produce more food by far than we take from the sea. We will produce vastly more eggs because the fish meal is a splendid source of chicken food. We will produce more pork and beef per month. We will produce far more oranges and lemons, more peaches and cream, more chickens and eggs, more prunes and apricots, more walnuts and almonds.

Let me again call your attention to the fact that the whales and very large animals of the sea which we are now catching, would devour more herring each year than we are asking to take. We take the whale and the shark, the salmon and the tuna, and take as well the herring and sardines that otherwise they would take.

Increased Catch. Increased catch will reduce the cost from $70 to $40 and perhaps $30, and the increased supply at the lowered selling price will increase proportionately the use. The increased use will increase proportionately the production of every food product and will enable us to use fertilizer in the growing of our cereal crops.

The increased production at the lower selling price will give us more chickens and eggs, more oranges and lemons, more peaches and cream.

Importation. We are now importing from European countries, the Atlantic coast and Japan, quantities of fish meal which should be taken from our own waters. If we take from our own waters what we are now buying those who are now selling it to us will not take the fish supply necessary to manufacture the product now being sold to us. Others take, without limit, and sell to us because we have been limited. Why limit us and compel us to buy from others whose governments do not limit them?

It will be time enough to place a limit upon our catch when Japan and the other countries bordering on the Pacific ocean, the Atlantic states and European nations place a limit upon their fisheries.

Let me call your attention again to the migratory nature of the sardine and herring. They may spawn in our coast and migrate to Japan or Australia where they can be taken in unlimited quantities.

In closing let me say that if there was any danger; if there were any statistics going to show that there was any danger of exhausting this great source of food supply we would not press our claim to use it as a fertilizer and as animal food, even though we know we can produce two to eight tons of a higher class food with each ton of fish meal. We say this for the reason that if this source of supply became exhausted through an unlimited take or catch we could not have it for human food directly, or indirectly as fish, or indirectly in the shape of eggs, fruit and vegetables.
